COLONEL CHARMED BY ROUGH RIDERS

Western Cowboys Gave Roosevelt Grand Ovation at Cheyenne.

SPIRIT OF WEST STILL ALIVE

Teddy Urged Them to be Progressive During a Stirring Speech—Deeds of Skill and Daring for Their Visitor.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 27.—"I'm here to see what you fellows can do on the hurricane deck of a broncho," Theodore Roosevelt said today as a group of cowboys, the hardest riders in the West, gathered about him mounted on their horses. Col. Roosevelt saw all that the Wild West of today had to show him in the way of deeds and skill and daring and said that the spirit of the West was still alive.

As he watched the cowboys at their work, heard the Indians yell and saw the familiar sights of more than 20 years ago, when he was a plainsman, the spirit of it all came over him again, and he climbed down from the flag-draped reviewing stand and mounted a big white horse. He galloped around the half mile track at Frontier Park and past the crowded grandstand, while cowboys yelled, Indians gave their war whoop and the rest of the crowd joined in a tremendous shout. He dismounted after one lap, smiling his delight, and went back to his place to see the rest of the fun.

There was no formality about Roosevelt today at Cheyenne. Every cowboy who had drawn a year's pay and could get here came. There were thousands of them, with a good many cow girls. They came on horseback from miles around, some of them from points hundreds of miles away. The streets were thronged with men and women on horseback in their picturesque attire of many colors. There were a good many thousand of other persons, too, eastern tourists and the tradesmen and plain farmers of the region; but they got little attention It was the day of the old Wild West.

By the time Mr. Roosevelt arrived here, shortly after 9 o'clock this morning, the celebration was well underway. They met him at the station with a band and an escort of cavalrymen, and then followed a parade. The exhibition at the park was next on the programme and then there came a dinner which Gov. Brooks gave to the former President. A smoker at the Industrial Club and a theatre party, both of which Col. Roosevelt attended wound up the day.

The celebration at the park, which is set in the midst of the Brown Plains of Wyoming, a mile and a half north of the city was the star attraction and Sand Creek came next. Sand Creek is said to be the wickedest horse in the world, and after a long combat he bested Al. Whitney, one of the most skilled horsemen that the West has. Col. Roosevelt watched the struggle and after it was over, he shook the hand of Whitney and complimented him.

The sun was baking the plains with its fierce heat when Col. Roosevelt appeared. He rode in an automobile from Cheyenne, although some of the cowboys were expecting that he would appear in chaps and sombrero on a horse. The Indians were the first to spy him as he rounded the turn of the half mile track and set up a wild yell. The crowd that filled the grandstand and the bleachers and overflowed into the field joined in and gave the colonel the noisest welcome he has had since he left New York for his Western trip.

Capt. Hardy, who, according to the megaphone man who made the announcement is the champion marksman of the world, was just drawing a picture of Col. Roosevelt by firing bullets at a white target when the Colonel appeared. The colonel took his place in a reviewing stand just across the track from the grand stand, and watched the champion's fancy shots.

Four cow girls had a half mile race on horseback next Joella Irwin, who is 13 years old, appeared in short white trousers on the back of Brownie and she caught the colonel's fancy. Before the race began he beckoned to her and shook her hand. She had two hard falls from her mount yesterday and was severely shaken, but refused to withdraw. She won the race today, and Col. Roosevelt called her back to him to congratulate her.

Thereafter a dozen cowboys picked up the reviewing stand, after Colonel Roosevelt had descended from it and carried it across the track so that the crowd might hear the colonel's speech which came next.

Gov. Brooks introduced him and for half an hour he talked to the crowd. He spoke of the old West, now fast passing away, and the men it developed. He told the people of the new West that they must preserve those same characteristics if the nation is to endure. He urged them to be progressive.

"It will be a bad day for America—the end of America—if the average

NICARAGUA AGAIN A PEACEFUL LAND

General Estrada Proceeding to Managua to Become The New Ruler.

COAST HOSTILITIES ENDED

Policy of the New Administration Expressed in Note Sent Representative at Washington—Mena Acting President.

Managua, Aug. 27.—Jose Dolores Estrada, to whom President Madriz turned over the administration of the Nicaraguan government before fleeing the country, today retired from the Presidency in favor of General Luis Mena, who was designated by him as acting president of the Republic. This change of administration was in accordance with instructions from Estrada's brother, General Juan J. Estrada the head of the provisional government, and leader of the successful revolution against Madriz. General Mena immediately took possession of the presidential mansion.

The prefect of Managua has issued a decree to the inhabitants of the capital instructing them to decorate their domiciles in honor of General Juan Estrada, who is coming to the capital.

General Juan Estrada arrived at Granada at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. One of the first acts of the acting president was to appoint a committee to go to Granada and escort the triumphant leader of the revolution to the capital.

The final clause of an agreement signed last night, provides that the free election for the presidency which, according to the proposals of the commission of conciliation should occur within six months, shall be held within a year from the present time.

Estrada Rule Begins Soon.

Bluefields, Aug. 27.—General Juan J. Estrada, provisional president of Nicaragua, is as the first act of his administration sending to Dr. Salvador Castrillo, his personal representative in the United States and minister to Washington from the provisional government a note setting forth the policy of the new administration.

In the note he will pronounce for the re-establishment of the finances of the country, the elimination of Zelayaism, the abolition of private privileges, and concessions and complete compliance with the terms of the Washington convention, aiming to put a stop to the perpetual revolutions in the Central American States and encroachments by one State upon another. In the note, it is understood, he pledges himself to free elections to the presidency of Nicaragua, to be held within six months.

General Estrada, with other leaders of the revolution, desires the appointment as minister to Nicaragua Thomas P. Moffatt, the American consul at Bluefields, and in a telegram sent to Dr. Castrillo today he says:

"Don't forget when asking for recognition of the revolutionary government to suggest strongly to the American Department of State the appointment of Mr. Moffatt, as minister to Nicaragua, to perpetuate the confidence existing between the two countries. We feel that this appointment will be the best pledge and guarantee of future good relations of the two countries."

General Mena, with the chief of the Madriz faction, who remain in Nicaragua, have signed terms of surrender at Managua and the government gunboat Novention, at Lake Nicaragua, which has hitherto held out against the provisional government, surrendered to the forces of General Chamorro, the acting president at Granada, today. The retirement of the Madriz steamer Venus has terminated hostilities on the Atlantic coast.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Surprise was expressed by Senor Castrillo, representative in Washington of the Estrada government, when informed tonight by the Associated Press that General Estrada had sent him a telegram urging him to recommend to the State Department the appointment of T. P. Moffatt as minister to Nicaragua. Senor Castrillo said he had received no such telegram and while indicating his own approval of Mr. Moffatt he doubted the propriety of his making any suggestion to the American government as to whom it should send to Managua as its representative.

As American consul at Bluefields, Mr. Moffatt has ingratiated himself with the Estrada followers by his fairness and his appointment to the higher post doubtless would be pleasing to the new government. Senor Castrillo made it clear, however, that he would prefer that the State Department should make the designation on its own initiative.

HOTEL QUARANTINED.

Diphtheria and Scarlet Fever in Greenville, S. C., Hostelry.

Greenville, S. C., Aug. 27.—Caesar's Head Hotel is under quarantine on account of an outbreak of diphtheria and scarlet fever. The diphtheria patients are a little daughter of Prof. E. E. Geer, and a child of Rev. Mr. Herbert; the scarlet fever victim is a son of Mr. Shanklin, of Easley.

Physicians from Greenville have been to the hotel and administered antitoxin to all children in the neighborhood. It is said the cases are light and the children have passed the crisis. The quarantine may be lifted next week.

Actress Will Marry One of Montana's Copper Kings

New York, Aug. 27.—Another actress will wed into the millionaire class when Miss Bernice G. Henderson becomes the wife of F. Augustus Heinze early in September. Miss Henderson played the role of the Vampire in "A Fool There Was," and has been on the stage for several years. Until she was eight years of age Miss Henderson was afflicted with blindness. The man she is to marry has had a most interesting career since he went to Montana as a mining engineer almost penniless a number of years ago. Since that time he has garnered millions from the ore veins of Butte and other camps in Montana and has also had his share of tilts with Uncle Sam in prosecutions for alleged violations of the national banking laws. He was recently acquitted by a Federal grand jury.

DR. CRIPPEN BACK IN LONDON

Inspector Dew Delivered American Dentist and Miss Leneve to British Authorities—Formally Charged With Murder.

London, Aug. 27.—Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, the American dentist, and his typist, Miss Ethel Clare Leneve, returned to London today from Canada, where they were apprehended by the police on suspicion of being connected with the disappearance of Dr. Crippen's actress wife, Belle Elmore and with having knowledge of the mutilated body, believed by the police to be that of Mrs. Crippen, which was found in their Hill Drop Crescent residence.

It is just seven weeks since Dr. Crippen and his companion disguised in boy's clothes, secretly left London.

The Crippen party, composed of the two prisoners Chief Inspector Dew and Sergeant Mitchell of Scotland Yard, and the two wardresses, who had, in charge Miss Leneve arrived at Euston station at 7 o'clock tonight from where they had disembarked a few hours earlier from the steamer Megantic. Three taxicabs were waiting at the station and the party immediately was driven to the Bow street police court where the accused man and woman were formally charged with the crime and then placed in cells.

DIED ON WEDDING DAY.

Sad Death of Young Man in Raleigh —The Funeral.

Raleigh, Aug. 27.—Out at Mt. Pisgah church this afternoon there was the funeral of S. O. Yates, who died yesterday morning at Rex Hospital, from typhoid fever, death coming to him on the very day that he was to have been united in marriage to Miss Pauline Olive, of Apex. Mr. Yates was 25 years old, a son of J. D. Yates, of Morrisville. He had been for some time a pharmacist in the Main Street Pharmacy, Durham, and about three months ago accept a position with the Hicks' up-town drug store here.

THE SIBLEY CASE.

Audit of Election Expenses Postponed to September 13th.

Franklin, Pa., Aug. 27.—The audit of the $42,500 election expense account of Jos. C. Sibley, Republican nominee of the 28th Congressional district, which was scheduled to begin Monday morning before Judge Geo. S. Criswell, has been postponed until Tuesday, September 13th. Judge Criswell granted this at the request of attorneys after hearing arguments from both sides tonight.

SHERMAN PRAISES MR. TAFT

Keynote of Vice President's Opening Speech in Illinois—Thousands Assembled to Hear Him—Starts on Long Trip.

Clinton, Ill., Aug. 27.—Vice President James S. Sherman stopped in this city today just long enough to tell the Weldon Springs Chautauqua that he would not talk politics and he did not unless an eulogy of President Taft may be called politics.

This is the first halt made by the Vice President in a trip which is to carry him through Missouri and Oklahoma ending next Saturday night in Oklahoma City. He is accompanied by his brother-in-law, Capt. Sherrill Babcock, of New York. There were 3,000 to 4,000 persons assembled at Weldon Springs just outside Clinton, when Mr. Sherman, accompanied by Congressman William B. McKinley and former Congressman Vespasian Warner arrived.

"William H. Taft is a patriot," Mr. Sherman said. "Behind that charming personal presence, behind that sunny smile; behind that disposition which would avoid controversy, there is courage, stability and the firmness to meet any contingency, An illustration of this is when, last June the Presidents of several great corporations went to the White House and they went—well, figuratively, with chips on their shoulders. There was the chance for a heated controversy. The President might have met them in the same spirit, the chip-on-the-shoulder spirit, and there would have been an unpleasant result. A man of less courage might have given way.

"But President Taft did not do so. There was a calm, serious talk, and when it was over the agreement was that the government should go ahead in its course, and that the courts should not be called on to settle the contention."

That was the way Mr. Sherman referred to the somewhat famous meeting of President Taft and the railroad presidents to consider the freight rate question.

The greater part of the Vice President's speech was devoted to the wonderful resources of the United States. He gave figures showing the enormous growth of the railroads, of the manufactures and of farming industry.

He asserted that in no country was the citizen and his family so well off as here. And all this, he said, has been made possible by the protective tariff system. "I believe in that principle," the Vice President added.

Decatur, Ill., Aug. 27.—Vice President Sherman, speaking here tonight in Congressman Wm. B. McKinley's

PRIMARY IN SIXTH IS NOW ARRANGED

Special Committee in Session at Raleigh Yesterday Afternoon.

WILL VOTE SEPTEMBER 15TH.

No Convention Will be Held and Returns Will be Certified—Details as to Robeson and New Hanover.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 27.—The Sixth District muddle as to whether H. L. Godwin shall have the Democratic nomination for Congress to succeed himself or whether O. L. Clark or some other Democrat of the district shall be the nominee, Godwin and Clark having both claimed the nomination in the former district convention, is to be settled September 15th, with a general uniform primary throughout the district, the candidate that receives the most votes to be declared the nominee provided he receives a majority of the vote cast.

Furthermore, all who expect to enter the race for the nomination are to file notice to this effect on or before September 1st.

This was the decision reached this evening by the special committee of the State Democratic executive committee, named to hold a primary, composed of Hon. J. R. Young, Col. J. Bryan Grimes and H. A. Foushee.

During the afternoon the committee heard suggestion from O. L. Clark, A. J. McKinnon, H. L. Godwin, J. C. Clifford and E. F. Young. All were found to be pretty close together in the matter of what was necessary in the way of machinery for the primary and also entirely willing to cut out any post primary convention.

The knottiest problem is now to deal with the legalized primary laws of New Hanover and Robeson counties. This is to be worked out later and the impression seems to be that the uniform voting primary can be held in these counties just as they are in the others for the reason that this is simply an extraordinary feature of party machinery that is not obliged to conform to these special county laws.

Detailed machinery for the primary is being worked out and will be announced later. One of the pollholders at each precinct is to be sent on September 17th to the county seat with the precinct returns. These returns for the county are to be certified to the Special State Committee here in Raleigh and this committee, J. R. Young, chairman, will canvass these returns and formally declare the nominee on September 20th.

A. J. McKinnon, of Maxton, says he will not re-enter the race for the reason he had acquiesced in the nomination of Clark in the former sensational convention. So he will make a fight this time for Clark.

It is said here that McClammy, of New Hanover, will not run in this primary and that it is very doubtful if Cook, of Cumberland, will run. So it looks like a clear field for a sharp fight between Godwin and Clark. Both express themselves thoroughly satisfied with the arrangements made for the primary.

PULLMAN COMPANY HELPING BROWNE

Sensational Charges Yesterday in Lorimer Bribery Scandal Investigation.

RAILROADS AND PASSES GIVEN

Intimation That Over Thirteen Thousand Requests Were Honored for Members of Illinois Legislature—Subpoenas Issued.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Charges that the Pullman Company is aiding the defense of Lee O'Neill Browne, minority leader of the Illinois Legislature, in his trial on the charge of buying votes to elect William Lorimer to the United States Senate, were made in court today by State's Attorney John W. Wayman.

This charge was followed almost immediately by subpoenas by the prosecutor of the appearance on Tuesday before a special jury of numerous officials, and clerks of the Pullman Company, incuuding John C. Patterson, division superintendent.

This move of the State's attorney is believed to concern his petition for a special grand jury. A subpoena was issued directing officials of the Pullman Company to bring before the grand jury books and records showing the names of applicants for positions in the months of April and August, 1909.

Following a request by the prosecuting attorney, the court directed that F. G. Hull, head clerk for the chief clerk of the Illinois Central, produce in court Monday all the passes issued to members of the Illinois Legislature. Mr. Hull denied an intimation by Mr. Wayman that 13,165 passes were issued at the request of Illinois Legislators.

NEW NORWAY BOAT LINE.

Steamships Will Run to United States —Capital of $2,800,000.

Christiana, Norway, Aug. 27.—The Norwegian-American Steamship Line, was established here tonight with a capital of 10,000,000 kronor ($2,800,000.)

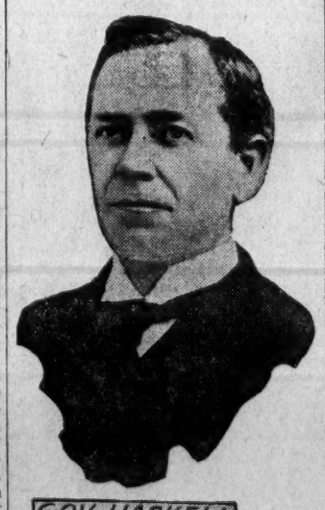
The directors of the new line were authorized to purchase for four and three quarter minutes kronor ($1,330,000) the steamship Kaiser Frederich, of Hamburg, which will be renamed the Leif Erikson.

Engebreth H. Hobe, the Norwegian consul at St. Paul, Minn., was elected one of the directors and six other persons from America are on the board of advisers.

The scheme for a direct steamship line between Norway and the United States has been under advisement for a long time. It was originally the intention to have Sweden and Denmark share in the financing and management of the line, but that plan was abandoned. The creation of the new combination may be taken as an indication of an unusual increase of emigration from Scandanavia to the United States. The proposed line will make possible travel between New York and Norway in less than nine days instead of eleven at present.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 27.—Harry M. Daugherty, of Columbus, today issued a statement declaring his candidacy for the United States Senatorship from Ohio in which he held that Republican members of the next Legislature would not be bound by the verdict of the State primary of last Spring, in which Senator Dick was the only candidate for the Senatorship.

MAY ORDER OUT TROOPS.



Guthrie, Okla., Aug. 27.—Rumor was persistent today that Governor Haskell was on the point of ordering the militia to Guthrie to remove the books of the State Bank Commissioner. The books are held in a local warehouse under an injunction issued Tuesday night when the State officials were in the act of removing them to Oklahoma City.

RULING OF COURT STIRS STRIKERS

Demonstration by Protesting Cloak-Makers Follows the Decision.

CALLS STRIKE CONSPIRACY

Under the "Closed Shop" Demands, Sixty Thousand Paraded the Streets in New York and Threatened Violence.

New York, August 27.—Parades of protests broke out all over the east-side today on receipt of the news that Justice Goff had ruled in the State Supreme Court today that a strike which demands the "closed shop" is a conspiracy in restrain of trade. Bands of the 60,000 cloak makers now on strike marched through the streets, one of them to city hall, carrying banners and American flags and shouting "closed shop" at every step. There was no violence, but apparently the decision stirred the strikers.

Justice Goff's decision granted an injunction to the members of the Manufacturers' Protective Association in restraint of acts of violence, threats, picketing and patrolling by strikers: "The promary purpose of this strike" reads his finding, "is not to better the condition of the workmen, but is to deprive other men of the opportunity of their right to work."

A final vote on the tentative agreement reached yesterday between the strikers and the manufacturers, details of which have already been published, was expected to be reached late tonight and not to be made public until tomorrow. General opinion inclines to the belief that the terms will be accepted, although there is much complaint that they are not more favorable to the strikers.

AFFAIRS IN RALEIGH.

Convict Escapes—Chatham at the Fair.—Circus.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 27.—The State penitentiary authorities announce the escape of Thomas Duncan, a young jeweler, who was serving a two years' sentence from Cabarrus county for larceny. He was 23 years old and was committed to the penitentiary last January. He had been given "trusty" privileges recently and took advantage of his opportunity to steal a suit of citizen's clothes from a guard and slip away from the camp which is on the Virginia & Carolina Southern Railway near Tar Heel, Bladen county.

Chatham county has just reserved 100 feet of space in the new concrete agricultural and horticultural building for a big exhibit at the North Carolina State Fair, October 17 to 22. The work on this building, the first of a series of fire-proof buildings, intended to take the place of the present frame buildings that constitute the State fair equipment, is being pushed now with redoubled force so that it will certainly be completed in ample time.

It is learned that the State fair management is still at work seeking to stop the Ringling Brothers circus from setting up in Raleigh on Thursday of fair week. The county commissioners some weeks ago granted the license to the circus, but it is insisted that the county and city authorities have the right to rescind without incurring liability for damages, since the agent in slipping in here and getting the license so far in advance as to indicate a consciousness of taking an unfair advantage of the community.

WIRELESS FROM AERO.

New Achievement In Aviation in New York Yesterday.

New York, August 27.—Buzz, Buzz, Buzz, Zizz" spoke the small voice of the coherer into the ear of the wireless operator stationed this afternoon on the roof of the grand stand at Sheepshead Bay race track. A mile away and 500 feet up Aviator McCurdy was a speck against the sky. The operator began to piece into sense the sputting of the wireless. This is what he read:

"Horton:

"Another chapter in aerial achievement is recorded in the sending of a wireless message from an aeroplane.

(Signed) McCURDY."

Thus became a reality this afternoon the first wireless message sent from an aviator in a flight to a receiving station on earth.

J. D. A. McCurdy, a pupil of Glenn H. Curtis, was both aviator and sender and Harry M. Horton, formerly a sergeant in the Spanish-American war and acting under supervision of Major Samuel Eber of the United States Signal Corps, was the receiving operator.

Stockholm, Aug. 27.—Herman De-Lagercrantz, the representative of Sweden at Washington since 1907, has resigned, according to an announcement made here today to look after his personal business in Sweden where he has large interests. The retiring minister's diplomatic services are highly regarded here and there is no foundation for the report that his resignation was caused by attacks made on him by the Swedish American press.

Raleigh at Wilson.

By a sensational batting rally in which everything broke in their favor, the Sailors won out in a pretty game with the Railroaders yesterday, four to one. A doubleheader was scheduled, but on account of rain, the first game was not commenced until nearly five o'clock.

Wilson for the visitors and Fletcher for the Sailors, had honors about evenly divided between them as far as hits went, and both pitched a very good game, although at times both weakened for short intervals all through the game. Several sensational plays were made by both sides, and the game was nerve racking all through.

An interesting feature of the game was in the second inning, when Leary, Rocky Mount's first baseman, poled one out that resounded against the Bull Durham sign, thereby winning for the batter the first prize in this league which the Tobacco people offer for this stunt.

After Peartree had skied to left, Forgue singled to center, and was advanced to second on Gillespie's put-out on first, Gastmeyer going out Cooper to first. Kluttz was out pitcher to first, after which Cooper walked, but was caught trying to annex second after Tydeman had skied to right.

In the second, Creagan was out short to first, after which Stein hit to center for two bases, and Leary followed with a swat which hit the Bull Durham sign, scoring Stein and going to third himself on the throw-in. Dussault walked, but was caught stealing second. Wilson went out to first unassisted. Wilmington was out in order.

Both sides were out in order in the third, and in the fourth, after two men were down, Stein singled to left, and stole second, and Leary fanned. On Wilmington's half Kluttz started with a two-bagger to center, and was advanced to third on Cooper's put-out on first, Tydeman going out short to first, after which Orth singled to center, scoring Kluttz. Doak singled to second, advancing Orth to second, and both runners were advanced by a passed ball, Kite going out short to first.

In the fifth, after Dussault had struck out, Wilson was safe on an error of Mills. Peartree struck out, and Forgue hit to short, forcing Wilson at second. Wilmington went out in order.

Sixth: Gillespie flew to center, Tydeman making a sensational run after it. Gastmeyer flew to left, after which Creagan singled to center and stole second, going to third a moment later on a wild pitch, but Stein ended it by dying on first. In the last half after Kluttz had skied to second, Cooper singled to left and stole second. Tydeman popped to catcher and Orth was at bat when Cooper was caught stealing third.

In the seventh Leary beat out a bunt and was sacrificed by Dussault. Wilson went out to first, unassisted, advancing Leary to third. Peartree went out third to first. Wilmington was out in order.

In the eighth, after the Railroaders had been retired in one, two, three order, and Mills had struck out, Dubbs going out short to first Fletcher was safe on an error of first and Kluttz hit to center for two bases, advancing Fletcher to third. Cooper singled to center, and went to second on the throw-in, scoring Fletcher and Kluttz. Tydeman was safe on an error of short, which advanced Cooper to third, he scoring a moment later on a double steal advancing Tydeman to second. Orth flew out to center. Rocky Mount was out in order in the ninth, ending the game.

PENNANT DREAMS.

Didn't we tell you?

Everything broke in our favor.

Fletcher didn't get warmed up good until about the third inning.

If we only could have played 'em both. But, that's fair enough.

It appearel that Kluttz stood aside to let that swat of Leary's hit the sign.

Only one victory has that "Wrecked Crew" (Record please note) annexed the past week.

Never mind. It might have broke up the league if we had won both ends of a doubleheader.

Forgue had six of the thirteen assists credited to the Railroaders, and also got a hit and a put-out.

A few Rocky Mount near-fans on the grandstand made it a rule to kick on every decision that went against them.

That swat of Leary's that cracked the paint off the Durham sign sounded like a bass drummer beating a funeral march.

Four stolen bases to our credit compared with two for the other side, emphasizes the fact that Bertram was on the job.

124 consecutive innings with only six tallies against them is the record of the Sailors to date, a record which, if it has ever been duplicated in any league, we should like to hear of it.

That Cooper tallied two hits out of three times up. This player has made a record in batting for this League in the past month, having an average of .364 on the home grounds since August 1st.

Kluttz was the Kandy Kiddoo at the batting stunt yesterday, registering two hits, both of them two-baggers, in four times up, and was directly responsible for the victory, as both of these swats came in the innings where we scored.

Considerable excitement was caused in the fifth inning, when Pitcher Tracy was ejected from the grounds by the police for using abusive language to His Umps Henderson in a dispute over balls and strikes delivered to Gillespie.

The Sailors leave tomorrow morning to play a series with Goldsboro, return to play off the last of the season with Fayetteville. Where the Big Sign floats next year will be decided this week, and the Electric Matinee at Struthers should be crowded every day.

That Gillespie looks good to the man up a tree. He puts the ball to first with a lightning speed that makes one almost lose their breath, and seems to have just a little on all other third basemen in the league, excepting, of course, our Cooper, who is good enough for the pennant winners.

When that big rag floats in the breeze at League Park next season, the fans should not forget the bright particular star who did about a half dozen men's share in putting it there. Of course, we refer to hard working Cooper, and to search the record of current comments of about two months back would give one a good opportunity to hee-haw at some people.

As long as those boys back us up so magnificently in all our forecasts, we're going to keep it up, so we predict two victories at Goldsboro, and three out of four from Fayetteville. We can't figure out any possibility of anyone overcoming the lead we have this morning, so we advise Manager Moore to get the hammer which was wielded so unmercifully in the early part of the season and use it to tack the pennant up.

KILTIES POUNDED STEWART

Game Won by Highlanders Yesterday Afternoon—Benefit for Donovan on Monday Morning—Home Run Featured.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Aug. 27.—Good hitting and base running combined with Mayer's pitching enabled Fayetteville to win 6 to 1. The Highlanders hit Stewart unmercifully for a total of 15 bases and stole bases at will on Westlake, purloining eight bags.

Mayer held Wilson safe all the way while there was no stealing on Galvin. Landgraff's home run to deep left enlivened a rather dull game. Dwyer's, O'Halloran's and Thorpe's brilliant all round work and Schumann's hitting were other features. Only two passes were issued by Fayetteville's pitchers in this series while but one base was stolen by Wilson. This was not made on Galvin but on Landgraff. An exhibition game will be played here Tuesday morning between Rocky Mount and Fayetteville for the benefit of M. J. Donovan, one of Fayetteville's most valuable players, who has been ill with typhoid fever since July 5th but is now convalescing.

MERCHANT'S MASTERFUL WORK

Timely Hits by Brown and Gates Gave Goldsboro the Victory—Number of Thrilling Plays—McCormick Benched.

(Special Star Teelgram.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Aug. 27.—Merchant's masterful pitching and two timely hits by Brown and Gates gave Goldsboro today's game, which was marked by a number of thrilling plays. In the second Raleigh had the bases full with none out, but was kept from scoring.

Goldsboro had a similar opportunity but failed to get a man home. Goldsboro had three men thrown out at the home plate. The Giants pulled off a double steal the second of the season. MacDonald was the star batsman. Merchant handled eight different assists, showing himself as usual a star fielding pitcher. Keating played a beautiful game.

McCormick was put out of the game for continuous kicking and when the change left Raleigh with only eight men in uniform available, until Jobson could don a suit, Goldsboro continued to play under protest.

VOTE FOR FAVORITE.

Unique Contest to Determine Most Popular Ball Player.

By reference to a page advertisement in today's issue of The Star it will be seen that a unique contest is now on to determine the most popular member of the Wilmington baseball team of the Eastern Carolina Association, the scheme being the production of the fertile brains of Messrs. D. Montrose Bain and C. H. West, of the circulation and mechanical ends of The Star, respectively, and enthusiastic baseball fans. With each 10 cent purchase from the stores represented in the advertisement the person making the purchase will be entitled to one vote for any member of the Sailor crew he or she may elect to cast ballots for. The contest will close Saturday night at 9 o'clock. The player receiving the highest number of votes will be presented with a diamond signet ring, now on display at Honnet's. The presentation will take place at League Park Labor Day.

YOUTH WINS GREAT RACE.

Mulford, Driving a Loziar, Took Honors at Elgin Meet.

Elgin, Ill., Aug. 27.—Ralph Mulford, a blonde youth driving a car that never faltered, today won the greatest road race ever seen in the West. He drove a 50 horse power Lozier 305:03 miles in 4:52:29.85, or at an average speed of 62.5 miles per hour. He ran 203 miles without a stop, and halted then only because he was under a misapprehension as to one of his tires.

Albert Livingstone, and Arthur Greiner, both piloting 40-horse power Nationals, finished respectively, second and third. Livingstone's average was 60.2 miles an hour, and Greiner 58.4. Livingstone's total elapsed time was 5:04:10.90 and Greiner's 5:13:23.03.

George Robertson, whose Simplex looked like a winner over the first 76 miles during which he climbed from fifth to first place and had a lead of three seconds over Mulford, developed a remarkable streak of bad luck and was compelled to change tires eighteen times. When his tires would let him he ran true to his form of other years, and finished fourth. Including stops he averaged 54.9 miles an hour. Another Simplex, driven by Saynor and the only other car in the 13 starters running when Starter Wagner stopped the race.

SUFFERING AMONG TROOPS.

Reported to War Department From Those Fighting Forest Fires.

Washington, Aug. 27.—With the temperature below freezing and the soldiers clad in the light uniform worn in the military maneuvers from which they suddenly were withdrawn, much suffering from the cold was today reported to the War Department from the troops fighting forest fires in the northern Rockies.

Capt. Frazier, of the 14th Infantry, who is in command of a camp about 13 miles north of Delton, Mont., has reported to his superior officer that the weather there was "cold" and his men suffering. The snow and rain which had fallen, however, had helped greatly in subduing the fires. The need for troops was about passed, he reported, provided the foresters and rangers did their duty.

Capt. Mullay, who is in command of fire fighting troops near Lolo Hot Springs, Mont., likewise reported that the fires were checked by the rain and snow which had fallen on the higher peaks.

Five fires are now burning on the Yakima Indian Reservation in Washington, according to a telegram received at the Indian Bureau today from Superintendent Young. High winds and the dry conditions of the forests make the situation dangerous.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carrier in the city or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards or thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms No. 61. Call either if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will be invariably rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith.

Sunday, August 28th, 1910.

The introduction of Roosevelt by a Republican Congressman in the insurgent West as "the most distinguished American" would appear to be taking no notice of the fact that William Howard Taft is the American President.

Panama thinks she won independence from Colombia, but, with Uncle Sam's meddling in her presidential election, the little Canal Republic has another thought coming to it. Uncle Sam is the great intermeddler of Nations.

A man complains that his mother-in-law annoys him by incessantly chewing gum. If she were to give up chewing gum and take to chewing the rag, he would consider that chewing gum is too small a fault to be included in his category when telling his troubles.

Col. N. A. McLean, of Lumberton, in a card in yesterday's Star, makes it as plain as the nose on a man's face that he has no political ambitions to gratify in any shape or form. The fact is, the Colonel is resentive instead of receptive, even of an office that may be "donative."

It is announced that Speaker Cannon will go to Virginia and speak for the re-election of Congressman Slemp, who is an out and out Cannon man. Col. Roosevelt, who is an anti-Cannon man, will also do some campaigning for the Cannon man. How much principle is involved in that kind of politics?

If St. Paul were the head of the Republican party in North Carolina it wouldn't be any credit to St. Paul and it would be no reason why he should take it for granted that white folks in North Carolina had forgotten the record of Republicanism under any kind of leadership in North Carolina, either in "the days of good stealing" or the latter days of Fred Douglasism and Butlerism.

President Taft goes right ahead making promises for so-called "further tariff reduction," right in face of the fact that he has had experience with a Congress which paid no attention to all the other promises made by Mr. Taft in the campaign two years ago. When President Taft talks about reduction of the tariff tax by the friends of the tariff and the close relations of protection he adds a burdensome tax upon our credulity.

Col. Roosevelt declares he is going to the State Republican convention of New York and fight for the "interests of the people" and "demand that the Republican party be given a chance to stand squarely and uncompromisingly for clean, decent, honest politics." He says he is ready for a fight with the "Old Guard" if they want it. The Old Guard would certainly put itself in a false light to fight against what the Colonel proposes as the gauge of battle. No doubt they will fight back but they will decline to let Col. Roosevelt say what the fight is going to be about.

If they stood for Uncle Joe all these years when they were praising him, why is it that they are now demanding that Uncle Joe "must go"? Uncle Joe has lately done nothing but the same old thing that made him the ideal Republican and popular politician just a short while back. The mere fact is, the Republican National organization sought to make a sacrifice of Cannon to appease a public sentiment that is in a rapid state of revolution. That is a specimen of ingratitude the baseness of which is mildly typified in the farmer who would plow his horse, make all the use of it he possibly could while he lasts, and then turn him adrift in the Winter to shift for himself.

WATERWAYS DEVELOPMENT.

Congressman John H. Small, of Washington, N. C., Democratic representative from the First Congressional District, is a man who "does things." Mr. Small was recently renominated without opposition and it was a demonstration of the good sense of the people of the First District as well as a manifestation of their confidence in their representative—North Carolina's representative. Congressman Small has in every way proven himself worthy of an undisputed title to renomination because of his ability, his untiring energy and his great zeal in behalf of the development of the waterways of this country.

Mr. Small was not in Washington very long as a North Carolina representative till he began to lay the foundation of an eminently useful career. He at once identified himself with the great problem of improving this country's waterways for the purpose of promoting navigation and developing the country's commerce. His advocacy of waterways development took on a broad and national scope but he has been particularly zealous in behalf of liberal improvements of the navigable streams and waters of North Carolina. That is one of the greatest of our national and State problems and Mr. Small has made himself a conspicuous figure in the movement. His ability has been widely recognized and today he is regarded in the United States as one of the strongest men engaged in a National development that is of the most tremendous importance.

The North Carolina Congressman has displayed great activity in the development of the navigation possibilities of this country and is now regarded as one of the experts on development of waterways as a means of enlarging the navigation and commercial potentialities of the Nation. The country not only owes a debt of gratitude to such men as the Hon. John H. Small, of North Carolina, but especially also to the Hon. J. Hampton Moore, the young Pennsylvania Congressman whose heart and soul likewise is wrapped up in waterways development. We may be pardoned for digressing here to say that Congressman Moore is another member of Congress who is making himself useful on broad lines. Mr. Moore resides in the city of Philadelphia which itself elects quite a number of Congressmen. His district includes Liberty Hall where the Declaration of Independence was promulgated and within his district is kept the sacred Liberty Bell so dear to the hearts of all Americans. He represents a historic district, with many historical associations, and he is proving himself a most worthy Representative in Congress. Like Mr. Small, his work partakes largely of a National character, and he gives his time and devotes his attention to waterways development at a great sacrifice personally and financially. So does the North Carolina Congressman who has given Wilmington the pleasure of having had a recent visit from the able young Pennsylvanian. The friends of waterways developments were specially pleased when Mr. Moore was recently renominated in his district, for his election will mean the continuance at Washington of a steadfast friend to the navigation and commercial interests of the United States.

Mr. Small does not let any grass grow under his feet when it comes to looking out for water transportation problems. He keeps everlastingly at it and one more evidence of it was the Star's correspondence from Washington, a few days ago, referring to Mr. Small's position in advocacy of a comprehensive policy in the treatment of our rivers, harbors and canals. North Carolina, both in his district and outside of it, has numberless improved and unimproved waterways, which hold within them great possibilities for the development of North Carolina. It is good, therefore, for North Carolina to have a man like Small in Congress. He knows his business and likes it.

Wilmington is under great obligations to Mr. Small as well as the entire North Carolina delegation in Congress, for it is here that North Carolina wants to develop a great port possessing potentialities little dreamed of by those who give only cursory attention to the matter. The forthcoming meeting of the Waterways Convention to be held at Providence, R. I., August 31st to September 3rd, will be attended by Mr. Small and numerous delegates from North Carolina, among those named being a number of Wilmington's representative men. North Carolina should be well represented at that convention because it means much for the commerce of the United States and especially to the development of North Carolina which probably has more navigable waters capable of development than any other area of the same proportions in this country.

By the way, while acknowledgment is being made of the conspicuous usefulness of Congressmen Small and Moore in the development of the ports and waterways of this country, Wilmington has a citizen who has become both prominent, influential and useful in his identity with that great movement. We refer to Mr. James H. Chadbourn who has freely given his time and made personal and financial sacrifices in his work in behalf of Wilmington's navigation possibilities and waterways developments in general. Mr. Chadbourn is so intensely interested in this cause and is so earnestly enlisted in the practical work, that he recently abandoned his Summer vacation to return to Wilmington and join Messrs. Small and Moore in one more blow for the good cause. However, there are other Wilmingtonians deserving of high credit, and altogether Wilmington is being made to figure conspicuously in the ocean navigation of this country. Keep up the good work.

EDT—

THE DOCKERY HIGHWAY.

The sentiment for the Wilmington to Charlotte highway is growing like wildfire. New Hanover will be well represented at the Laurinburg meeting by a large majority. Editor Cowan, of our esteemed evening contemporary, promises his attendance and Chairman D. McEachern, of the New Hanover Board of Commissioners, has cancelled an engagement to attend the Atlantic Deeper Waterways convention at Providence for the sole purpose of being present at the Laurinburg meeting. Still others will attend.

How the name of Mr. James W. Murrell, of Phoenix, could have escaped our attention in suggesting delegates from Northwest township, Brunswick county, which holds the key to the situation, is beyond our ken. An exceedingly timely communication from Mr. Murrell with reference to road improvement in general and this highway in particular, is printed elsewhere in today's paper. We want Mr. Murrell at this meeting in Laurinburg. He is hereby commissioned a delegate under authority of the appointive power vested in us by Col. Dockery.

The Whiteville correspondent in today's paper tells of the interest in Columbus. The press of Robeson has been busy for some time and Brothers Harker, Sharpe, Branch, Johnson and the Fairmont Messenger should be present. Concerted action is all that is necessary. It is a strong pull and a pull altogether for the Dockery highway.

WILMINGTON'S COMMERCE.

For the fiscal year ended June 30th, 1910, Wilmington's foreign commerce, measured in the value of exports and imports, amounted to the goodly sum of $23,277,679, of which there were $20,922,398 of exports and $2,355,281 of imports. These figures we get from the "Monthly Summary of Commerce and Finance of the United States," just issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor, Washington, D. C.

Wilmington exports for the previous fiscal year were $20,479,726, so we see that Wilmington's gain in exports for the year just ended has been $442,672. Wilmington's imports for the previous year were $1,228,991, so that we gained in imports this year $1,126,290, practically doubling those of the previous year.

During the fiscal year ended June 30th, 1910, the exports of Norfolk and Portsmouth footed up $8,155,818; those of Newport News, $5,059,261; those of Charleston $8,104,821. The combined exports of Norfolk, Portsmouth and Newport News were $13,215,079, which, compared with Wilmington's $20,922,398, makes a showing in Wilmington's favor, as compared with all three Virginia ports, of $7,707,319. The combined exports of Charleston, Norfolk and Portsmouth were $16,260,639, showing that Wilmington's exports exceeded all three by $4,661,759.

These are not invidious comparisons, but are noted that the importance of Wilmington as a port can the better be recognized.

It seems that Wilmington has a "Jack the Roof Walker."

A man might be a Vice President and still be small potatoes and few in a hill.

William Barnes, Jr., of the New York Old Guard, seems to know the political side of Col. Roosevelt better than the Colonel knows himself.

A Philadelphia man died at a baseball game. Probably he was foolish enough to bet on the home team and saw which way the game was going.

The most we get out of ex-President Roosevelt's Western speeches during this tour is that he has constituted himself the chaser of political crooks as the next best thing to hunting down lions.

A man who does not believe in his town can't make anybody else believe in it. Get the habit of mentioning everything good about your town and keep the bad things shut up in the closet with the family skeleton.

North Carolina has made wonderful educational, industrial and agricultural progress. She certainly is not expected to let Marion Butler and John Motley Morehead flag her down with their political jack-o'-lantern.

CURRENT COMMENT.

This from the Wilmington Star is good: "The Republican party had a new birth at Greensboro," remarks a contemporary. That's nothing. Just consider who hung around and got possession of the kid."—Henderson Gold Leaf.

"I'll make the corporations come to time," says Teddy. The only corporation that "came to time" under Teddy was the steel trust, which was permitted by Teddy to swallow up its only competitor. If any other, what?—Raleigh News and Observer.

In selecting Mr. C. E. Hooper, of this city as manager, the promoters of the new hotel which is to be erected at Wrightsville Beach, have shown a soundness of judgment which argues well for the entire success of the undertaking.—Charlotte Observer.

The recent shipment of six tons of seaweed from Elizabeth City calls attention to a North Carolina industry which, although the majority of North Carolinians have been unaware of its existence, is capable of development on no unimportant scale.—Charlotte Observer.

Sentiment over the entire State is growing in the establishment of a legalized primary. Many of our best statesmen are in favor of it. Other States are trying it and the time is not far off when North Carolina will have this improved method of selecting candidates for office. All will admit that our present method of choosing candidates is imperfect. Why not adopt something better right now?—Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer.

The fact that Morehead has invited Slippery Jim Sherman to open the Republican campaign, shows that what Taft and Roosevelt say is not good enough for New York is plenty good for North Carolina Republicans. The Greensboro Telegram, writing of this, truly says: "We believe the people in North Carolina are about like those in other States in their antipathy to a discredited politician. And Sherman is thoroughly discredited as a result of a recent letter written by President Taft, if indeed anything was needed to discredit him."—Raleigh News and Observer.

Thomas A. Edison announces that he has perfected the electric storage battery and his announcement may be accepted as substantially in accord with the fact. What this achievement should mean in the way of perfecting horseless traction of every kind and driving railroad trains and steamboats is difficult to conceive. Coal will do an immense proportion of its work without ever leaving the mine. This achievement may prove the crowning point of Mr. Edison's memorable career. We hope that in his work he found the experience gained on his quest for cobalt in Lincoln county some years ago serviceable.—Charlotte Observer.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Morning Star, today urges that the counties directly interested in the proposed Wilmington-to-Charlotte high way be well represented at Col. Dockery's meeting to be held in Laurinburg next Friday, and The Star calls upon some excellent workers from the different counties to be on hand, and wants us to attend, and for New Hanover county to be strongly represented. The Dispatch will be represented, and joins heartily in The Star's advocacy for New Hanover to have a strong representation at the meeting, including, as The Star says, "Chairman D. McEachern, of the New Hanover Board of County Commissioners, perhaps the best informed man on road affairs in the State." We note with pleasure, though not at all with surprise, that The Star will be represented at the meeting, and we trust that Col. Thomas W. Clawson will be there in person. When it comes to things industrial the Colonel is an authority and he commenced work for the proposed highway directly at the cry of "play" and has worked early and late and vigorously and well in its behalf ever since. He is certainly a charter member. Wilmington cannot afford not to be well represented at the meeting in Laurinburg, because such a highway as proposed would be a big thing for Wilmington, both commercially and in its relation to Wilmington's seashore resorts.—Wilmington Evening Dispatch.

DOINGS IN COLUMBUS.

Primaries Yesterday—Dockery Highway—Death of Mrs. Smith.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, Aug. 27.—The county primary is today being held in Columbus, and great interest is manifested. At this hour it is not known who are the winners, and the matter will probably not be decided until next Wednesday, when the county convention meets. There are some fifty candidates for county offices, to be voted for, and the result is very doubtful. Much interest is being centered on the race for the Legislature, there being five candidates, viz, Mr. Clyde Council, of Wananish, one of the most popular young men in our county. Mr. Council consents to let his friends use his name, while not an announced candidate. Hon. R. H. Powell, for many years county treasurer; Hon. James M. Shipman, who has before represented Columbus county in the General Assembly; Prof. B. A. Marlowe, of Old Dock, and Capt. A. T. Clark, outside manager of the Waccamaw Lumber Co., of Bolton.

The Boardman Lumber Co., that has been partially shut down for some time, will be started up again September 1st, so it is reported.

The Democrats of Columbus are delighted over the primary to settle the Congressional muddle in this district. The friends of both Messrs. Godwin and Clark will begin work in earnest as soon as the county election is settled. Both candidates have strong followings in this county.

Our citizens are enthused over the automobile road from the mountains to the sea, and intend to send a strong delegation to the meeting at Laurinburg. They are anxious to have that highway pass through this county, and the commissioners will build the section that traverses our territory. It is thought the best route will be via Boardman, Chadbourn Whiteville and the shores of the beautiful Lake Waccamaw. Mayor Davis says the town of Whiteville will do its full share and duty, and our town must get that automobile highway by all means.

The Republicans are not so hopeful since the primary was called to settle the Congressional muddle in the Sixth district, for it means they will have a solid Democratic organization to combat and which of course means defeat. They are hard at work, however, and intend to make a vigorous fight to elect county officers. Several of their members have recently joined the Democratic party, and it is thought there will be other defections.

As a general thing we have exceptionally fine crops in this county, and a number of farmers count on making 100 bushels of corn per acre, and some patches will even exceed that yield. Cotton has come out wonderfully of late, and an average yield will be made. Growers are now beginning to market tobacco, since the better grades are bringing fair prices. The weed, however, is very light, owing to the continued rains washing off the gum. A wagon load only weighs about half of what it should do, on this account.

A gloom of sadness was cast over our entire town today by the announcement at 9:30 of the death of Mrs. Lee Covington Smith, the beloved wife of Rev. Chas. C. Smith, pastor of the Baptist church at this place. The death of Mrs. Smith is particularly sad as she leaves five small children, the youngest an infant of only six weeks. Mrs. Smith was universally loved throughout this section and was a woman of attractive personality and lively Christian character. Her whole life was spent in acts of kindness and charity and in her death the whole town feels a personal loss. Mr. and Mrs. Smith moved to Whiteville from Beaufort, N. C. two and a half years ago and have endeared themselves to our people whose hearts go out in tenderest sympathy to the bereaved husband and children. The remains will be interred in the Whiteville cemetery on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

THE WATERWAYS CONVENTION

Number of Wilmingtonians Will Attend Meeting at Providence, R. I., This Week—Some Left Last Night.

The third annual convention of Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association, of which Congressman J. Hampton Moore, of Pennsylvania, is president, will be held at Providence, R. I., Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week and it is expected that there will be in attendance a large number of delegates from each of the States along the Atlantic seaboard and from cities located on navigable streams in the eastern States.

North Carolina will send her full quota of delegates and Wilmington will be well represented. Mobilizing in Norfolk, Va., most of the delegates from North Carolina and Virginia will go by boat from that city via the Merchants' & Miners' line, affording a most delightful trip. The Wilmington delegates will represent both the North Carolina Waterways Association and the Chamber of Commerce. Among those who left last night was Mr. B. F. Keith, collector of customs at this port. A number of others leave tonight, among them being Mr. Meares Harriss, secretary of the North Carolina Waterways' Association. Mr. Harriss announced yesterday that the following delegates had signified their intention of attending the convention: Messrs. C. N. Evans, Eric Norden, W. H. Chadbourn, J. B. Mercer, M. W. Divine, H. G. Smallbones, Jos. W. Little, E. P. Bailey, Duncan McEachern, B. F. Keith, of Wilmington; Henry Station, of Bethel; H. M. Jenkins, of Washington; J. H. White, of Elizabeth City; G. H. Smith, of Cronly; W. T. Jacobson, of Washington; W. T. Hundell, W. H. Hooker, J. T. Wilkinson, J. W. and H. G. Mayo, W. A. Thompson, J. R. Boyd, R. L. M. Bonner and L. D. Midyette, Aurora; W. R. Capehart of Avoca and C. L. Duncan of Beaufort.

A quantity of printed matter relating to Wilmington and this section with special reference to the proposed 30-foot channel for the Cape Fear river at this point has been mailed to Providence by Secretary Harriss and will be distributed among the delegates to the convention.

WILL OPEN SHOE STORE.

Popular Young Men to Engage in Business in Greenville, S. C.

Messrs. A. M. Scarborough and W. E. Phelps, well known and popular young business men of this city, have formed a co-partnership and will engage in the retail shoe business in Greenville, S. C., for which place Mr. Phelps left yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Phelps. Mr. Scarborough, accompanied by his wife, will leave for his new home in the Palmetto State the latter part of this week.

Many friends of the young men and their wives will learn with much regret of their departure to South Carolina, but will wish the new firm the full measure of success. Both have been residents of this city for some time and have been active in church as well as business circles, being members of the First Baptist church.

Mr. Scarborough, a native of South Carolina, and a graduate of Furman University, came here about a year ago as superintendent of the Wilmington office of The Bradstreet Company, succeeding Mr. Paul Bell, which position he has held with conspicuous ability. He has made many warm friends in the local business world and they have learned of his intended departure with much regret. His successor has not yet been announced.

Mr. Phelps has been a resident of Wilmington for several years, coming here from Winston-Salem, and for the past seven years with the Atlantic Coast Line general offices, working his way up steadily to his last responsible position, that of chief clerk to the Roadway Accountant. Previous to his railroad life, Mr. Phelps was engaged in the shoe business for six years. He has a wide circle of friends and acquaintances in Wilmington.

Friends of the young men predict for them great success in their new business in the Palmetto State and hope that they will return to Wilmington often on visits.

BOUND OVER TO HIGHER COURT.

Negro Given Preliminary Hearing on Charge of Stealing Ox.

Deputy Sheriff G. W. Skipper was in the city yesterday morning on his way home in Northwest township, Brunswick county, from Southport, where he went Friday morning to take to jail at that place Tillman Shepherd, colored, arrested in this city Thursday on the charge of stealing an ox from Mr. J. M. Skipper, of Brunswick county, and given preliminary hearing before Justice L. S. Skipper at Farmer's Station, Thursday night. The justice found probable cause and bound the defendant over to the next term of Brunswick Superior Court and in default of $200 bond he was committed to jail at Southport. Another warrant has been issued against the negro charging him with the larceny of a heifer from Mr. West Skipper, of Brunswick county, Wednesday of last week, but hearing in this case has not been had. Shepherd, it will be recalled, attempted to cut his way out of his cell at the City Hall Thursday afternoon while confined there awaiting the departure of the evening train for Conway, S. C., on which he was taken to Farmer's Station. He had cut one of the wooden bars in two and had it not been for the discovery of Capt. "Bob" Green he would possibly have succeeded in his purpose to escape.

LARCENY OF LAUNDRY CHARGED

Driver of City Laundry Delivery Wagon Arrested Yesterday.

Charged with the larceny of a quantity of laundry, O. R. Parker, a white man, driver of one of the delivery wagons of the City Laundry, was arrested by Constable Savage late yesterday afternoon. The arrest of Parker followed a search of his house in the afternoon by the constable under authority of a search warrant, it being stated that a quantity of the articles alleged to have been stolen from the laundry were found.

The warrants were sworn out by Mr. J. O. Hinton, secretary of the City Laundry Company, before Justice Harriss. The one upon which the young man was arrested specifically charged that the defendant "did unlawfully, willfully and feloniously take and carry away shirts, collars and bed spreads, the property of J. F. Walker; value less than $20." The defendant gave bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at preliminary hearing Monday, J. S. Parker being security.

It is stated that for some time various articles have been missing from the laundry. Recently the shortage became so noticeable that Mr. Hinton's suspicions were aroused and he began the investigation resulting in the issuance of a search warrant against Parker early yesterday afternoon. This was placed in the hands of Constable Savage and he made a search of the home of Parker on Dock street, and it is stated that he found many articles that have been missing from the laundry from time to time. The warrant for Parker's arrest was then sworn out.

DOINGS AT LUMINA.

Three Concerts Today and Souvenir Dance for "Kids."

In addition to the regular concerts at Lumina today there will be an extra concert at 11:30 A. M. This concert is put on for the benefit of the excursionists that spend the day at the beach every Sunday. The indications are that there will be a great many excursionists at the beach today probably more than on any other Sunday this season.

The progremmes for the regular concerts at 3:30 and 8:30 P. M. contain many fine selections, among them being "Traumerei', "A Day in the Cotton Field," Schubert's "Serenade," "Three Twins," "Il Trovatore." The full programme will be found in the advertising columns of this paper.

It is also announced that the Lumina orchestra will play every afternoon during the week at Lumina, as well as playing for the dances at night. Tomorrow night there will be a souvenir dance for the "Kids."

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Services Will be Conducted by the Pastor—Special Music.

Services at the First Baptist church this morning and evening will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster. This morning he will have as his subject, "Life's Supreme Motive," and at night the theme will be "Condition of the World During Christ's Millenial Regin." Special music has been arranged for each of the services today. This morning Mrs. Hagerdon, of the faculty of the Meredith College, will preside at the organ and will be accompanied on the violin by Prof. Hagerdon, who is acting dean of the college and a violinist of note. At tonight's service Miss Lillian Taylor, the accomplished organist at First Church of Christ, Scientist, will preside at the organ and there will be a solo by Miss Higgins, of New York City. The public is cordially invited to both services.

Fine Japanese Persimmons.

One of the finest bunches of Japanese persimmons ever seen in this section, grown on one of the farms of the Carolina Trucking Development Company at Castle Haynes, was brought to this city yesterday morning. One of the colonists there has a large tree that is "loaded" down with the fruit and the branch brought to the city and a number of others were taken off to prevent the tree from breaking down. There were nine persimmons on the branch that was brought to this city and they are several times the size of the ordinary persimmon. The Japanese persimmon is said to be extra fine fruit.

Duplin Goes on Railway.

The steamer Duplin, Capt. Stokes, arrived yesterday from Smith's Bridge and after making one more trip to her home port will go on Skinner's railway next Tuesday to be overhauled. The river boat will be placed in readiness for work on the Northeast this Winter and it will require about a week to make the necessary repairs. The Duplin will resume her regular trips on about the 6th of the month.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

THE SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK

WILL GO BY AUTO.

Pathfinder Trip From New Hanover to Laurinburg Meeting.

Chairman D. McEachern, of the New Hanover Board of Commissioners who has eschewed the delights of a Rhode Island clam bake and the other big features of entertainment at the Providence, R. I. meeting of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways convention in order that he may attend the Wilmington to Charlotte highway meeting at Laurinburg this week, has arranged to make the trip from this city by auto and will be accompanied by Mr. A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Tidewater Power Co., Mr. A. L. Council, of the Wilmington Auto Co., and one or two other good roads enthusiasts, leaving here on Sept. 1st. In this way they will be in position to get at first hand a knowledge of conditions that will be of much benefit at the Laurinburg meeting. Chairman McEachern has a letter from Chairman Long, of the Mecklenburg Board of Commissioners, in which he expresses enthusiasm in the movement, and Commissioner "Jack" Carter, of Maxton, will join the party in the auto en route. All the counties are falling into line rapidly and the highway is assured.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

Some Much Needed Work Being Done by the City Forces.

Chairman Fred W. Bonitz, of the Streets and Wharves Committee of the Board of Aldermen, announced yesterday that work of making some needed improvements on Fifth, between Market and Princess, and Princess, between Fourth and Fifth streets, had been commenced under the direction of his department. Macadam is being placed on the east side of Fifth street and Princess street is being filled in and graded so as to eliminate sunken places and bring the street up to the level of the car tracks. A portion of the expense for improving Princess street will be paid by the Tidewater Power Company.

Mr. Bonitz also announced that three fine horses recently purchased by the street department had arrived from Richmond, Va. They are Virginia bred animals and the trio cost about $750. This gives the department 20 horses, four less, it is said, than were formerly used for the city work.

GRACE METHODIST CHURCH.

Services Today by Rev. J. C. Wootten—Rev. Mr. Smoot Away.

Rev. J. C. Wootten, of Trinity College, Durham, will conduct the services at Grace Methodist Church, this city, today, both morning and evening, in the absence from the city of the pastor, Rev. Thomas A. Smoot, who has gone to Norfolk, Va., where he will deliver addresses today on the great Laymen's Missionary convention recently held at Edinburgh, Scotland. Mr. Smoot went to Norfolk from Maxton where he lectured in St. Paul's Methodist Church Friday night using the work of the missionary convention as his general theme. Rev. Mr. Wootten is well known to the Grace Church congregation having supplied the church as pastor during the Summer months while Mr. Smoot was away attending the missionary conference in Scotland.

CAPE FEAR ACADEMY.

Old and Long Established School to Re-open for Fall Term.

Prof. Washington Catlett, the principal, announces that the Fall term of Cape Fear Academy Will open its 38th session on September 14th. This is one of East Carolina's oldest and most thorough preparatory schools and numbers among its alumni some of the best known business and professional men in the State. The principal for the past 30 years has labored in the community for the education of its young men and that the school is still alive and has the brightest prospects for its Fall opening this year is sufficient testimonial to its worth. Prof. Catlett leaves Tuesday to attend the annual convention of county superintendents of public instruction at Chapel Hill, but will return in good time to have everything in readiness for the opening of his school.

PENDER MAN ARRESTED HERE.

J. D. Futch Charged With Disposing of Mortgaged Property.

J. D. Futch, a white man of Pender county, was arrested in this city yesterday morning by Constable Savage on a warrant issued by Justice Harriss charging him with disposing of mortgaged property. The warrant was sworn out by K. C. Sidbury, Esq., of this city and alleges that the defendant disposed of several cows on which a mortgage was held by R. T. Sanders, of Folkstone, Pender county, It is charged that the defendant butchered the cows and brought the beef to this city and sold it to Mr. James M. Holland. The defendant has retained A. J. Marshall, Esq., as counsel. The preliminary hearing will be before Justice Harriss Tuesday. The defendant gave $100 bond for his appearance at trial.

MARRIED WILMINGTONIAN.

Death of Commodore Gault, U. S. N., Retired—His Wife Known Here.

Commodore Rogers Gault, U. S. N., retired, whose death was announced in the Associated Press dispatches to the Star yesterday morning, married Miss Meares, daughter of the late Dr. John L. Meares, who formerly lived in Wilmington, but removed directly after the war to San Francisco. Mrs. Gault died some years ago. Commodore Gault was in Wilmington some 12 years ago at the outbreak of the Spanish War and many people will recall having met him at that time.

Big Installment of Currency.

The American National Bank yesterday received from the Treasury Department at Washington a consignment of $50,000 in bright, new, crisp currency. This new currency is paid out at the bank and is a "thing of beauty and a joy forever." In other words, "it is exceedingly good to look upon" and still better to possess.

MRS. RACHAEL ENGLISH DEAD.

Aged Woman Passes Away After Illness of Some Time.

Friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Rachael English, who passed away at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. C. N. Packer, No. 513 Brunswick street, at 8 o'clock last night after an illness of some time. Mrs. English had been confined to her bed for some five or six months and for the past few days her condition had been regarded as serious. She was about 60 years old and is survived by four children, Messrs. J. W. and Eli English, and Mrs. C. N. Packer, of this city, and Mr. J. T. English, of Myrtle Grove Sound. She was a member of the Baptist Church. The funeral will be held from the residence at an hour not decided upon last night and the body will be taken tomorrow morning to Wallace, where the interment will take place.

CONCERTS AT LUMINA.

Three Will be Given Today—One in Morning for Excursionists.

For the benefit of Sunday excursionists from neighboring towns, the Lumina Orchestra will give an extra concert at Lumina this morning at 11:30 o'clock. It is expected that there will be a large number of visitors at the beach today from towns in this section. The regular concerts at 3:30 and 8:30 P. M. will be given today as usual. Beginning tomorrow the orchestra will give a concert every afternoon in addition to playing for the dances at night.

The Recorder's Court.

Jim Brown, colored, was in the Recorder's court yesterday morning to answer to a charge of assault with deadly weapon. It appeared that the wrong Jim Brown had been arrested, the warrant for a person by that name being for a Greek, and pending further investigation the negro was recognized for his appearance in court Monday. "Bud" Harris, colored, was sentenced to 30 days on the county roads for vagrancy. One drunk was required to pay the usual fine of $5 and costs, while another, an excursionist from Montgomery county, was let off with the costs.

Brooklyn Baptist Church.

Rev. C. F. Whitlock returned yesterday morning from a four weeks' vacation spent in the western part of the State, and will take up his work with renewed strength and earnestness at Brooklyn Baptist church this morning. He is anxious to have a full attendance of his people at the meetings, both morning and evening. This will be the closing day of his third year as pastor of Brooklyn Church and some things interesting, especially to all members of the church, will be considered, with special reference to plans and purposes in entering upon the fourth year's work.

Negro Arrested on Suspicion.

Calvin Clark, a young colored man, was arrested at 11:45 o'clock last night on Second, between Chesnut and Grace streets, by Patrolman Stevens on suspicion. The arrest was made near the point where the officer was shot at by a negro a few nights ago. When searched a razor was found on the negro's person. At the City Hall the negro stated that he had just left a barber shop and was on his way home when nabbed by the officer. No charge has been preferred against him as yet.

Bridge in Good Condition Now.

The work of repairing the bridge that spans the Seaboard Air Line tracks on North Fourth street, has practically been completed and the bridge is now open for use by the public. The railroad company was notified some days ago that the bridge was in dangerous condition and that use of it by the public had been prohibited. The company immediately put a force of hands to work to make the necessary repairs and it is now said that the bridge is in good condition.

Elected Superintendent.

Rev. Mr. Jenkins, who supplied the pulpit of the Southport Baptist church so acceptably for the past three months, has been elected superintendent of the graded school in that town and will remain in Southport. Mr. Jenkins is well equipped for this work, having had considerable experience as teacher and being a full graduate of Wake Forest College.

SENTIMENT FOR GAYNOR.

Want Him as Leader of Democrats for Governorship in New York.

New York, Aug. 27.—A canvas of this State by the New York Times has resulted in findings which that newspaper will summarize tomorrow as follows:

"So strong and so general is the Gaynor sentiment that it has caused a lull in the discussion of other names which had been mentioned for the leading place on the Democratic State ticket. Both in its nature and in the element among the voters which holds to it the Gaynor sentiment is closely akin to the feeling for Col. Roosevelt and Governor Chas. E. Hughes when they were before the people as candidates for office or for a nomination."

Mayor Gaynor has repeatedly declared that he did not wish to be a candidate for Governor. If he should be nominated and decline ,it has been suggested that he name a substitute candidate.

Mayor Gaynor, it was stated tonight, will in all probability leave St. Mary's Hospital in Hoboken tomorrow for his country place in St. Jomes, Long Island. If not tomorrow, he will leave Monday.

DR. CARLOS PEACE-MAKER.

His Retirement From Presidency Brings Relief.

Panama, August 27.—After repeated conferences with prominent members of the government and of the Liberal Party, Dr. Carlos Mendoza announced today his retirement as a candidate for the position of acting president of the republic for which he is considered constitutionally ineligible by the United States, according to statements by R. O. Morse, charge d'affaires of the American legation here.

Dr. Mendoza, who is a negro, and his friends had earlier determined to disregard the reported opposition of the American government.

With Dr. Mendoza, out of the race for election as first vice president and acting president, the candidates with the greatest chances for election are Samuel Lewis, conservative and Belisario Parras, liberal.

A COTTON MARKET RECORD.

August Contracts Reached New High Figures on Market.

New York, August 27.—A new high record was established for the season in the cotton market today when August contracts sold at 16.90 or 36 points above the closing figures of last night and over $4 per bale above the low price of yesterday morning.

This sensational gain was due to covering by belated shorts following the issuance of notices yesterday which appeared to represent all the cotton available here for delivery to the bull leaders and which left the remaining short interest without protection.

The advance in August carried the price above the high figures recorded in May and July and the movement was regarded as a continuation of the bull deal which began last February.

Bilboa, August 27.—The majority of the Spanish workmen, it is claimed by the government, are not in favor of the general strike proclaimed by the Workmens' Federation to begin next Monday. The probability of its success, it is said, is not great. The bankers and the employees of the street railways and the electric lighting plants have refused to join the strike which will deprive it of much of its effect upon the routine of ever yda ylife.

AVIATOR INJURED.

Jumped 30 Feet and Broke Leg When Steering Gear Jammed.

Hanover, Prussia, Aug. 27.—Aviator Schluster had a narrow escape from death today while making a flight in a Voisin machine at Celle, 23 miles northeast of this city. The wires of the steering gear became entangled and seeing that he was in imminent danger, Schluster jumped to the earth, about 30 feet below. He escaped with a broken leg. The machine was dismantled.

Hamburg, Aug. 27.—Aviator Reeseman was making trial flights here today with a machine of his own construction when the moter exploded. The aeroplane fell to the ground from a height of 65 feet and was smashed. Reese escaped uninjured.

ARMED FEUDISTS AT TRIAL.

Clash Between Factions Flamed at Jackson, Ky.

Jackson, Ky., Aug. 27.—Jackson is crowded with armed feudists, who are here to attend the hearing of Tom and John Davidson, Hacker Combs and Jason Deaton, accused of assassinating John Abner, last Monday night ,and it is feared there will be a clash between the different factions.

The case against the four men was called in court today, but Judge Redwine postponed the formal hearing until Monday. Friends of both Abner and the alleged assassins, were in the court room. Much feeling was shown by both sides.

NATIONAL ISSUES THIS YEAR.

Special Privileges, Says Gov. Comer, Are the Worst of All.

Mobile, Ala., Aug. 27.—Gov. B. B. Comer, in a letter from Canada to Jesse Stallings, chairman of the State campaign committee, says:

"The National issues are, of course, the tariff, elimination of trusts, and special privileges, protecting, so far as possible, the producer and consumer.

"These matters carried out rigidly are democratic, and we, as Democrats, believe and wish to maintain them. The item that most concerns us is the last named—elimination of special privileges."

A HAPPY REUNION AT SCOTT'S HILL, N. C.

A reception was given at the hospitable home of Mr. F. M. Foy, Scott's Hill, on the 22nd inst., the occasion being called forth by the anniversary of Mr. Foy's birthday, he reaching on that day the 55th year in his journey through life.

All the living members of this Foy family were present by invitation—five in number—children of the late Joseph M. and Mary A. Foy, making a happy reunion.

Not a break has occurred in the ranks of this family for 49 years. During the year 1861 Mr. Daniel H. Foy, the first and oldest, died at the age of 21 and since then the five remaining ones have been blessed through the years up to the time of this reunion.

Dinner was served at 1:30 P. M. and these five members (who for more than a third of a century have been separated and scattered) were there to live over in memory the days of the past and to renew the ties of love and affection.

The spread was all that could be hoped for on an occasion of this sort and in a home of this kind. An attempt to particularize would be unsuccessful and embarrassing.

Mr. F. M. Foy, who was the host is the youngest of the set—their chronological order being Mrs. Henrietta Shepard, Messrs. J. T., J. W., H. S. and F. M. Foy.

In commemoration of this event and to emphasize their appreciation of the occasion the four visiting members presented their broher a beautiful silver ladle handsomely engraved

The meeting lasted until well into the afternoon and the enjoyment of all who participated was full in its measure of completeness.

The day following a group picture of the five was taken, a copy of which will remain as a souvenir in the hands of each.

SURPRISE MARRIAGE OF MR. WILL DONZIL HUHN.

Many friends of the groom in this city will be interested in the following from this week's issue of the Pender Chronicle, Burgaw:

"On Wednesday, just as night seemed about to draw the curtain of the day, traveling rapidly through the air was the smothered whisper—'There's a wedding in town this evening.' What could arouse the interest of Burgaw more. The further news spread the more the excitement grew, until about the time for the Northbound train to come the town's entire social realm swept swiftly toward the station, presuming of course, to verify the rumor and view the wedding party as they boarded the train. Picture, if you please, this gaily chattering crowd with hands full of rice, fully prepared to do honors to the bride and groom. The train blew, but yet they did not come. 'Surely they couldn't have gone to the junction,' was the cry. No, for just as the cars stopped here they rushed through the phalanx of boys, girls and older heads into the midst of a rice storm. 'And who were they?' did you ask, Why, Miss Exie Croom and Mr. Huhn. They will spend their honeymoon visiting different Northern cities. It is the kindly wish of their many friends that their entire life may be one constant realization of the beautifully woven dreams that the little blind god has planted in their minds, making of them one long vista of delight and happiness.

"Mr. Huhn is the popular and efficient salesman of the Pender Hardware Co. He was reared in Wilmington and has been engaged in the hardware business a large part of his life, being a number of years with J. W. Murchison & Co., of that city. By his close attention to duty and thorough knowledge of business he has made many friends in Burgaw and vicinity.

"Miss Croom, too, is one of Burgaw's most substantial young ladies, her true worth known best to her close circle of friends.

"The best wishes of the entire community and county is theirs. The following announcement was received today by the friends:

'Mr. and Mrs. Asa B. Croom announce the marriage of their daughter
Exie
to
Mr. Will Donzil Huhn
on Wednesday, Aug. the twenty-fourth nineteen hundred and ten
Burgaw, North Carolina."

TAFT ON MOTOR DRIVE.

Went From Sea Level to Highest Peak in New Hampshire.

Dublin, N. H., Aug. 27.—President Taft motored from the sea level to the highest town in New Hampshire today through an invigorating atmosphere that had a touch of Autumn in it and at a speed which covered the 85 miles from Beverly to Dublin in three hourse and 28 minutes.

The greater part of the speeding was done among the foothills of New Hampshire. There, the speedometer often registered between 30 to 35 miles an hour. This speed was sufficient to shake off all pursuers, including the secret service men who limped into Dublin an hour later. The only attendants of the President when he arrived were a couple of newspaper men, who clung tenaciously to him from Nashua to the Summer home of Secretary of the Treasury, Franklin MacVeagh, where the chief magistrate is a guest tonight.

The President was accompanied by Mrs. Taft; his daughter, Miss Helen Taft; his sister-in-law, Mrs. Lewis T. Moore, and Capt. Archibald Butt.

Soon after the President's arrival at Dublin, British Ambassador James Bryce called upon him and presented an official letter from King George V., announcing formally the death of King Edward and his ascendancy to the throne. Mr. Bryce also presented his new letters of credence as ambassador of King George to the United States.

GOV. SANDERS DECLINES.

Will Not Fill Unexpired Term of Late Senator McEnery.

New Orleans, Aug. 27.—In a statement issued tonight Governor J. Y. Sanders, of Louisiana, says he will decline to qualify as United States Senator to which place he was recently elected to fill the unexpired term of the late Samuel D. McEnery. The Governor did not deny reports that Judge J. R. Thornton, of Rapides Parish, for many years identified with political affairs of the State and a prominent lawyer, would be appointed Senator.

In making this announcement Governor Sanders says that he was actuated to take this course following representations made to him that he could best serve the interests of the World's Panama Exposition, proposed to be held here in 1915 by retaining the Governorship.

The Governor announces he will be a candidate for the United States Senate in the Democratic primaries to be held in 1912.

HISTORIC TOUR ENDED.

Munsey Autoists Arrived in Washington Yesterday.

Washington, Aug. 27.—The Munsey Historic Tour was concluded here today, when 115 dust-covered tourists, carried by 40 staunch machines, paraded up Pennsylvania Avenue. They were escorted into the city by more than 70 cars, bearing among them many of Washington's prominent officials.

The official scores have not yet been announced, but according to the unofficial verdict the following machines finished with perfect scores:

Columbia, two Washingtons, two Fords, Corbin, Brush, Engeer, Cina, Stoddard-Dayton, Maxwell, Kline and Matheson. Four cars were withdrawn, one was disqualified and ten were penalized.

The tour covered a total of 1,530 miles, beginning in Philadelphia and extending through practically all of the New England States.

RINGLE WAS MURDERED.

Mutilated Body Found Under Garage at Point Marion, Pa.

Point Marion, Pa., Aug. 27.—The body of Frank Ringle, aged 54 years, who disappeared mysteriously from his home here ten days ago, was found buried under the floor of a garage today. Ringle, who was formerly well-to-do, was an assistant to W. L. Harvey, manager of the garage. Ringle's only son, W. Lawrence, is a stenographer in the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce. Suspicion that Ringle had met with foul play was prompted yesterday when Mr. Harvey saw blood stains on the garage floor, and today while laying a pipe under the floor, the body was found, covered with grass, weeds and loose earth. The head was badly crushed.

It is known that Ringle had $100 in cash in his possession about the time of his disappearance, but other than the suggestion of robbery, there is no known motive for the crime. The police tonight arrested Louis Laurier, an employe of the garage, who recently resigned his position.

Col. Pearsall Tells What is Doing on the Placid Northeast.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., Aug. 27.—There has been here a trial before Esquires Durham and Pearsall. An employe of the A. C. L. was arrested and bound over to Pender Superior Court for aiding and abetting in the resistance of an officer who had a warrant for a party who was a work hand on the railroad.

The ladies of the M. E. Church sold refreshments today as an aid to the building fund and as usual "sold all out."

The Northeast river and creeks continue to be very full. Mr. Bob Futch, Sr., has had remarkable success transplanting berry plants. Nearly all live these wet times and make the largest, finest berries next season. Mr. Futch is an all-round good farmer, keeps ahead of all his crops, which are vigorous, growing and prosperous. Everything around him looks like the proverbial "Green Bay Tree." He says his home is the site of the choicest garden of Eden, but that he has old Father Adam "skint" a long ways, for he, Mr. F., has corn in the barn, bacon in the smoke house, Greensboro peaches, Leconte pears, Texas strawberries, a piano and fiddle in his house, (he can fiddle, too,) while old Father Adam didn't have anything, we read of, except figs and some reeds Tubal Cain stuck together to whistle through. Mr. Futch verily works when he works and fiddles when he fiddles. Thus drives dull care away.

Misses Dollie Rhodes and Katie Chesnutt are preparing to enter the Baptist University at Raleigh soon. Miss Fannie Hayes will attend Statesville Female College. Mrs. John E. Durham, Miss Martha Pearsall and Mr. Tom Pearsall are off at Blowing Rock spending some time.

American loses the quality of being a dead game man," he said.

The broncho busting was the most interesting of all the events of the day to Col. Roosevelt. While Al Whitney was having his tussle with Sand Creek, the colonel rose from his seat in his excitement and watched every move of man and horse. Sand Creek is a small brown, graceful horse of demure appearance, but the cow punchers say he has bad eyes. He allowed a cowboy to lead him down the track without a struggle, but when an attempt was made to get the saddle on him there was trouble. Two cowboys held him by the heckamore as the bridles without bit are called and blindfolded him. Sand Creek reared and struck out with his front feet. The cowboys dodged, but held. Al Whitney jumped on his back, while the band played and the crowd cheered.

Sand Creek did not wait a minute after the burlap was removed from his eyes. The cowboys jumped aside and he leaped straight into the air. Col. Roosevelt grinned and the crowd yelled, but Whitney stuck to his saddle. Sand Creek headed down the track, bucking and leaping from side to side. Whitney stayed on him until the horse ran into the fence, lost his balance and fell, but Whitney pulled his feet from the stirrups and struck the ground beside the horse, unhurt.

"Do it again, Al," the crowd shouted, and he said he would.

Once more Sand Creek was blindfolded and Whitney, nonchalantly smoking a cigar, leaped into the saddle. He stayed there three seconds. Sand Creek surprised him by plunging madly to one side, through the gate to the infield, and before Whitney could recover his balance he bucked so effectively that the horseman shot through the air and fell in a heap on the ground. Sand Creek trotted triumphantly away.

Teddy Roosevelt, Steamboat, Silver City and Rocking Chair, known over the West as horses that almost no one can ride, helped amuse the crowd.

Teddy Roosevelt always has been a hard horse to handle. He is a flea bitten roan and was led out today by Hugh Clark, a former champion.

Scarcely was Clark in the saddle when Teddy Roosevelt began to buck. He did not move out of a circle fifteen feet across, but he "sunfished" and swapped ends with such amazing arpidity that Clark was unseated and rolled in the dirt within fifteen seconds.

Col. Roosevelt looked down from the stand immensely pleased at the fight made by his namesake and cheered and laughed when Clark rolled in the dust. He called Clark to the stand and shook hands with him.

Later in the afternoon Teddy Roosevelt was led out again and Wm. Wallace tried to ride him. Teddy disposed of Wallace even more quickly than Clark, and the little horse was cheered wildly as he was taken to the corral.

The Sioux and Shoshone braves had their dearest wish gratified when they were called over to shake hands with Col. Roosevelt. Decked in every bit of their gaudy finery, they rode to the stand and each was given a hearty hand clasp in response to their greeting "how."

The Indians rode several races, yelling wildly all the while. The squaws had a race of their own and Uses A. Rat ran away from Mrs. Stat Head, Lost A. Pin, Carrie Works on the Tub, Twisted Ear, Mrs. Pin Head and Mrs. Sleeps Well. They wore loose trousers and silk blouses all flaming colors.

The cavalrymen from Fort Russell had a sham battle, Charlie Hirsig drove a team of buffaloes around the track, and the Indians gave a war dance. There was an exhibition of lassoing and branding and there was to have been a mule race, but the mules refused to run.

Gov. Brooks gave his dinner immediately after the sports were over. The guests included Col. Roosevelt, former Gov. W. A. Richards, U. S. Judge John A. Riner, James R. Garfield, George Adee, Senators Warren and Borah.

AS TO CHILD LABOR LAWS.

Discussed by Commission on Uniform State Laws Yesterday.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 27.—The commission on uniform State laws in session here discussed today the report of the committee recommending a uniform child labor law. Owen R. Lovejoy, of New York, general secretary of the child Labor committee, speaking on the subject said that in six years 13 States and the District of Columbia have established departments of inspection for the enforcement of child labor laws. Ten States and the District of Columbia have established an eight-hour day for the work of children under 16 years of age, only one of these last, Oklahoma, being a Southern State. In 1904 the fourteen year age limit for child labor was in effect in 12 States; today in 37 States. In 1904 no State had a law forbidding the employment of children under 16 in coal mines; today the age limit in the mines is 16 in six States; fourteen in 18 States and 12 years in eight States. In 1904 all employments were forbidden during special hours in 14 States; today they are forbidden in 23 States.

The commission after hearing Mr. Lovejoy's address deferred further consideration until next year. The commission finished discussion of the marriage laws begun at yesterday's session and referred the draft of the proposed uniform law back to the committee for revision.

A NOTRE DAME LADY'S APPEAL.

HEAT MAKES CHILDREN ILL

Summer is a very trying period for young children, and many a child who is usually healthy suffers during the heated term. There are many dangers for the child in summer. These lie in milk, food, water, fruit, etc. The greatest peril is from some form of stomach or bowel trouble. It is usually the starting point of graver troubles. The child becomes constipated, or gets indigestion. Perspiration is interfered with, worms develop, the skin becomes scaly and itchy, and the poor child is in much misery. Do not let it go and trust to luck or fate for a cure. Use a remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is intended to cure that very condition and is especially adapted to children's ills because of its mildness and purity. If the child has any of these symptoms, or has not had a passage in 24 hours, it needs Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at once. It will act promptly but gently, and as it is pleasant to take you will not have to force it. A bottle can be obtained of any druggist at 50 cents or $1.00, and you should obtain a bottle today, so as to have it on hand for an emergency. If you have never tried it you can obtain a SAMPLE BOTTLE FREE OF CHARGE by addressing

COAST LINE TO BUILD.

New Freight Warehouse in Florence, S. C.—Much Needed.

Florence, S. C., Aug. 27.—The Times this afternoon announces that the Atlantic Coast Line Company is preparing to materially enlarge and improve their freight depot in this city. For some time the quarters have been very cramped and work has been done with great inconvenience and often delay. The material is now on the grounds for the erection of a large brick building, sixty feet long fronting on Dargan street, with an attractive front. The old depot will be moved up and attached to the new, so as to give a large warehouse extending from the tracks. The new building will contain three offices and a file room, which will facilitate the transaction of business very much.

New York, Aug. 27.—John Roach, a laborer, fell three feet tonight from an operating table on which he had been laid to dress a minor wound and broke his neck. He was dead when picked up.

AUGUST COTTON WAS FEATURE

Sensational Advance in Price on Market Yesterday—New Record for Season—Closed Fifty Points Higher.

New York, Aug. 27.—There was a sensational jump in the price of August cotton today as a result of covering by some of the remaining shorts, and a new high record was made for the season, as August sold at 16.90, or 36 points above the closing price of last night, and 83 points above the low price made yesterday morning when notices of delivery were circulating.

The bulls sold a little cotton on the advance and there was a little selling by spot people, probably against a few hundred bales of cotton near enough to New York to be brought in here in time for delivery on short notices next week, but while the price broke from the early high point to 16,75 it later rallied to 16.89, showing the control of the bull leaders and closed at 16.82 bid. The big fluctuations in August had very little effect in the rest of the market and while August sold at a net advance of 28 points, later months were 1 to 3 points lower with the closing tone quiet and steady. The market opened firm at an advance of 36 points on August and 5 to 10 points on later months, which were influenced by the sensational strength of the spot position, better cables than expected and continued drouth in the Southwest. As has been the case on recent bulges, however, the advance was not accompanied by any broadening of outside demand and when the upward movement in August was checked prices gradually worked back to a shade under the closing figures of yesterday under realizing report of improvement in condition in Alabama and Georgia. Estimates as to the amount of short interest remaining in August vary from a few thousand bales up to about 25.000 and after the close of the market today all sorts of practices were heard as to the price likely to be reached for that day before trading in that position is over at noon next Wednesday.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 12,510 bales against 6,086 last week and 8.965 last year; for the week 90,000 against 55,476 last week and 82,000 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 260 bales against 157 last year, and at Houston 7,487 bales against 3,953 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 50 points higher; middling uplands 16.90; middling gulf 17.15. No sales.

Futures opened steady and closed about steady.

COTTON MARKET YESTERDAY.

Government Crop Report This Week Awaited—Little Buying Power.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Aug. 27.—Liverpool sent good cables, but the market received them with apathy and is waiting for the bureau report of the 2nd of September. The news crop reports are generally good. Bradstreet is hopeful for Texas, the Journal of Commerce thinks the prospects good with the future hinging upon the date of frost. Week-end figures were not significant and the disappearance of the tropical storm left the market without interest. August was bid sharply up at the opening on short covering to 16.90, advancing the general market in sympathy, but the trading was local and the improvement on new crops was not held. There is little buying power as the week closes and the weight of the early movement is soon to be felt.

PRESSURE SHOWN IN STOCKS

Movement Not Sufficient for Much Activity on the Market—Foreign Reports Quiet and Unchanged—The Conditions.

New York, Aug. 27.—Some pressure was shown in today's operations on the stock exchange, but the movement was so dull and narrow as to be almost featureless. Europe's markets were quiet and practically unchanged despite a continuance of the storm of criticism in Berlin and elsewhere on the continent resulting from Emperor William's sensational speech on the divine right of Kings. Industrial conditions were again slightly adverse especially in the text in trade.

The commercial agencies reported uncertain or irregular conditions in most lines of commerce. Weather conditions according to most advices were helpedful to crops except in Texas, where a severe fall in temperature excited some fears of damage to cotton and corn. In the local cotton market August options went to a new high record, advancing 36 points at the opening and other options were up 5 to 10 points, but reactions were general before the close of the market.

The bank statement displayed the usual discrepancy in its average and actual tables, loans under the former system increasing about $10,500,000 while the actual condition increase was little more than $500,000.

United States government 3s advanced 1-8c, the registered 4s 3-8 and the coupon 1-4 on call during the week. Total sales of bonds par value $412,500. Total sales for the day 94,300 shares.

THE GRAIN MARKET

Chicago, August 27.—Wheat ruled higher from the start and closed 1 1-8 up. Corn borrowed strength from the wheat pit and finished 1-4 to 1-2c higher, while oats on a moderate trade advanced and closed 1-4 to 3-8c. up. Provisions showed a strong tone and finished from 2 1-2 to 22 1-2 higher with pork leading the older products.

Cash close: Wheat, No. 1 red 100 to 100 1-4; No. 2 red 99 3-4 to 101; No. 3 red 98 to 99; No. 1 hard 100 to 101 1-4; No. 2 hard 99 3-4 to 101; No. 3 hard 98 to 99; No. 1 northern old 120 to 122; No. 2 northern 116 to 114; No. 2 spring 105 to 108; No. 3 spring 102 to 105; Durum 99 to 99 1-2.

BETTER ROADS FOR BRUNSWICK.

Editor Morning Star:—I have noticed recently in the Star several references to the "Mountains to the Sea" highway and especially the editorials concerning the Dockery meeting in Laurinburg September 2nd, which I hope will be a decided stimulus to this project. I am particularly anxious that Brunswick county be fully represented, especially Northwest township, as this highway will pass directly through it and we are already authorized to vote on a bond issue of $15,000. The good road sentiment is steadily increasing in this township and I have no doubt that within another year our road will be as far as Northwest township is concerned a realization. Now as there is no doubt that our people are going to vote these bonds in the near future, it is very important that we work from a well-defined plan and build the link of the proposed highway from Brunswick Bridge to the Columbus county line. We need the road aside from the through travel advantage and it will not only be a direct benefit to this township but to the whole of Brunswick county when Town Creek, Smithville, Lockwood's Folly and Shallotte townships finish the roads contemplated within their bounds. This will furnish the only feasible route from the western section of the State to Southport and no doubt would add materially to their Summer and Winter travel. Now is the time for us to push this project and Brunswick roads in particular, to completion, because our present trails are an abomination and are costing us a neat sum annually in the loss on hauling our produce to market and the loss of desirable settlers to cultivate our lands, that we would certainly get with better transportation facilities in the shape of good roads. We have been sadly behind in this one public improvement and it is time for us to wake up and take advantage of the opportunity that now presents itself and enjoy one feature of a progressive community and at the same time enhance the value of our real estate and confer a lasting benefit to posterity.

Sincerely,

JAMES W. MURRELL,

Phoenix, N. C.

COUPLE WERE RE-MARRIED.

Second Wedding Came After Only Fourteen Months' Separation.

Washington, Aug. 27.—William C. Hoodlett, 34 years old, manager of the Culpepper, Va. Exponent, and his former wife, Bertha F. Hoodlett, 31 years of age, were re-married in this city today after 14 months' separation.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoodlett were first married in Logan, Ohio, when the former was but 20 and the latter 16 years of age. The decree for their legal separation was granted in June, 1909. The time following the granting of the divorce was spent by Mr. Hoodlett in travel, while his wife and their two children visited in the Central West, and finally went to Fair Mount, W. Va.

Hoodlett was called to the West Virginia town recently to attend the funeral of a sister. The chance meeting of his former wife on the streets there resulted in the re-marriage here today.

SHERMAN PRAISES MR. TAFT

district, said:

"Invariably President Taft has kept his face forward and striven for the execution of pledges made as to the tariff, as to railroad legislation and as to legislation for the welfare of the laboring classes.

"The history of the country has shown that the Republican party is always right and the Democratic party always wrong. Where are all the declarations of principles of the Democrats? Fiat money, free silver, anti-imperialism? All buried, and now their only cry is a tariff for revenue only which finally means free trade. Every prophecy of disaster under continued Republican rule has been disproved, and now let me ask you, in aid of President Taft, who is striving so earnestly for the welfare of all the people, that you elect a Republican Congress so that such pledges as remain unfulfilled may be assured."

WOMAN FOR SMUGGLING.

Wealthy Mrs. McKenna Brought Paris Gowns Without Declaring Them.

New York, Aug. 27.—Following an examination today of 12 trunks packed with costly apparel and jewelry, which she brought on her return from Europe on the Mauretania, Mrs. McKenna, who gave her address as 2522 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, was cited to appear for hearing Tuesday on a charge of smuggling. She is accused of bringing in seven Paris-made gowns worth $1,000 without declaring them. Diamonds and jewelry worth $15,000 also were found in the trunks, but were returned to Mrs. McKenna when she made affidavit that she had taken them abroad with her. Bail in $5,000 was asked for Mrs. McKenna by Assistant United States District Attorney Wemple. An elderly man who said he was a friend of the woman but refused to give his name attempted to reach John Considine to furnish bond, but his efforts were unavailing. With the tombs apparently Mrs. McKenna's only alternative Wemple relented and allowed her to be paroled in custody of an attorney.

Walla Walla, Wash., Aug. 27.—An explosion in the Peacock Flour Mill in Milton, Ore., started a fire tonight that destroyed the mill and a number of small buildings. For a time the entire city was threatened. The fire department from Walla Walla rushed to the scene. The loss is estimated at between $75,000 and $100,000.

Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 27.—Lloyd C. Griscom, chairman of the Republican County Committee of New York county, who has a Summer residence at Greenfield Hills, was arrested in this city tonight charged with over speeding his automobile. At the police station Mr. Griscom gave bond for his appearance in court Monday morning to answer the charge.

WEEK'S NEW ENTERPRISES

Number of Important Announcements in This Week's Issue of Baltimore Manufacturers' Record—Electrical Power.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Baltimore, Aug. 27.—Among the many important Southern industrial and other developmental announcements in this week's issue of the Manufacturers' Record are the following:

Eastern Tennessee Power Co., of Chattanooga announced further details of its waterpower-electrical developments on Ocoee river. It will first develop 32,000 horse power near Parksville, Tenn., and later develop 53,000 horse power near Ducktown, Tenn. The initial investment will be probably $2,000,000 and the final investment will reach $3,750,000.

Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad Co., awarded contract for three turbine electric units of 3,000 kilowats each to furnish additional power for the Ensley plant and mines.

The Texas Sugar Refining Co., is investigating Texas City, Port Arthur, Beaumont and Houston with a view of selecting one of these as the location of its proposed sugar refinery, which will have a daily output of 2,000 barrels of refined sugar and will cost $900,000, the buildings to be of steel and reinforced concrete.

Penola Cotton Mills, Greenwood, S. C., completed arrangements for brick and reinforced concrete buildings and installing 10,000 to 15,000 spindles, 300 looms, etc., driven by electricity.

Detroit and St. Louis capitalists purchased 60,000 acres of Louisiana wet lands for $600,000 and will reclaim for thorough development.

Northern and Eastern capitalists purchased 118,000 acres of Louisiana wet lands and will reclaim the property so that it can be developed for agricultural purposes, L. J. Donahue, vice president of the Irrigation Securities Co., of Chicago, being interested.

Five Rivers Oil & Gas Co., Birmingham, Ala., was incorporated with $2,000,000 capital stock to develop oil and gas resources in Tuscaloosa, Fayette and Pickens counties.

Calumet Manufacturing Co., Liberty, S. C., awarded contract for the erection of an 80x104 foot two-story addition in which will be installed 200 looms, enabling the mill to manufacture cloth, whereas it has been spinning yarns.

Ringen Stove Co., St. Louis, decided some details of its proposed $500,000 plant; this will include a main structure 70 feet long with various ells, the total floor space being 220,000 square feet and covering eight acres of land; the daily capacity will be 1,500 stoves and the horse power required will be 700.

Virginia Bridge & Iron Co., Roanoke, increased its capital stock from $800,000 to $1,500,000 in order to pay for improvements, enlargements, branch plants, etc., completed during the past 18 months.

Alaga Mining, Power & Development Co., Bluffton, Ala., was incorporated by Birmingham parties to develop 6,000 acres of iron-ore land near Bluffton and Langdon.

Big Niangua Hydro-Electrical Co., Kansas City, is planning its proposed development of 30,000 horse power for transmission by electricity, the plant being estimated to cost $2,500,000.

Southern Manganese Mining Co., Harrisonburg, Va., was incorporated with $100,000 capital stock to develop 258 acres of manganese land.

T. A. Lemoine, of Moreauville, La., and associates are planning the construction of a central refinery with a daily capacity of 750 tons of sugar, the plant to cost $300,000.

Liquid Carbonic Co., of Chicago, is investigating with a view of building a $400,000 carbonic acid gas plant at Memphis.

L. F. Barnes, of Humboldt, Kans., and S. C. Garrett, of Kansas City, Mo., were reported as having contracted to locate a Portland cement plant at Tulsa, Okla., cost to be $1,200,000 and daily capacity to be 1,200 barrels of cement.

Brown Cotton Mills, Ragland, Ala., was incorporated with $250,000 capital stock to build a 10,000 spindle plant.

WANT NATIVES TO "COME BACK."

A New Railroad Wants Native-Born as Settlers.

Johnson City, Tenn., Aug. 27.—The movement inaugurated by the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Railway to bring "back home" native born Virginians, Tennesseeans and Carolinians now living in the West has, in only two weeks' time, proved a most popular undertaking. Newspapers in the three States, people who have absent relatives and public officials are impressed with the value of the plan and doing all they can to further it.

Replies to inquiries at over 500 postoffices in Southwest Virginia, East Tennessee and western North Carolina, made by the industrial department of the railroad, show that probably ten thousand young men removed from these sections in the five years preceding the building of the railroad. Their addresses are now being obtained by the railroad, and information concerning the new opportunities it has made possible, especially for farming, fruit and stock raising, is being sent them.

As an immigration plan Southern editors are saying that it is the most practical of any yet undertaken in the South; that the most desirable population for any country is the native born stock in these mountain sections.

USES OF NATIONAL FORESTS

Nearly Half a Million Persons Sought Recreation and Health in Government Reservations, According to Agricultural Department.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 27.—Before the year's outing season is over nearly half a million persons will have sought recreation and health in the National Forests of the United States. According to the record of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the total last year was, in close figures, 406,775.

With the finest mountain scenery and much of the best fishing and big-game hunting in the United States, the National Forests, made more and more accessible each year through protection and development by the Government, are fast becoming great National playgrounds for the people.

The use of the forests for recreation is as yet in its beginning, but is growing steadily and rapidly—in some of the forests at the rate of 100 per cent. per annum. The day seems not far distant when a million persons will annually visit them.

The records show that the seasonal use of the forests runs from two months in a Colorado forest, such as the Routt, to 12 months in an Alaskan, such as the Tongass. But the uses differ. In Colorado the 2,000 visitors entered the forest to fish, to camp, to climb, and to drink the medicinal waters; in Alaska the 1,000 almost solely to hunt and fish. The 21,000 persons who went into the Colconino forest, Arizona, during nine months, went to camp or to enjoy the scenery. During four months 50,000 persons visited the Angeles, California. The most popular of the forests is the pike, containing the famous peak of that name. The various attractions within its limits, including the scenic railway, drew 100,000 tourists and others. By principal States the National Forest visitors numbered 23,000 in Arizona, 103,000 in California, 140,000 in Colorado, 19,000 in Montana, 10,000 in New Mexico, 33,000 in Oregon, 22,000 in Idaho, 16,000 in Utah, and 12,000 in Washington.

Of the natural wonders and landmarks of interest in the National forests several have been set apart as National monuments among them Cinder Cone, a great lava basin in California; the Gila Cliff dwellings, extensive remains of a prehistoric race in New Mexico; the unsurpassed Grand Canyon of the Colorado, in Arizona; Jewel Cave, South Dakota; Lassen Peak, the terminus of a long line of extinct volcanoes in the Cascades; the Pinnacles, a collection of remarkable jagged peaks in California; and the Tonto, a group of prehistoric ruins in the Tonto Forest in Arizona. The Big Trees, Glacier Park, the Petrified forest, the Oregon caves, and numerous other phenomena serve to attract other hosts of visitors.

The sportsman finds his paradise in the National Forests. In many of them big game abounds. The rangers and the guards, besides the service they perform against the spread of fire, often point out the best site for the camper and the easiest route. A record of 9,218 miles of trail cut, 1,236 miles of road laid out, and 4,851 miles of telephone line strung, tells what the Government has done in the way of pushing the conveniences of civilization into the primeval forest. The day of the wilderness of the savage and the pioneer is swiftly passing; the day of the National forests as productive resources and as National parks approaches. The report of last year's administration by the U. S. Department of Agriculture evidences the rapidity of the transformation.

Whew, How I Hate Heat.

Say Mr. and Mrs. Fat.

Is it any wonder that the fat people hate hot weather? If your heart and lungs and stomach were bound around with layer after layer of false flesh that gave out a terrible unnatural heat and that interfered with their normal functions you would understand the aversion of fat people to hot weather. There is absolutely no reason for fat people staying fat in this age of triumph. We do not advise drugging yourself, dieting, or exercising yourself to death, but there is a method that has been proven successful. It is the famous Marmola tablets which do the work of removing fat exactly like nature intends it should be done. They stop the digestive organs from producing fat. They seek out the fat as it lies around the body and remove it at the rate of from 12 to 15 ounces a day. These little tablets are made from the great Marmola prescription and compressed into hard tablets by tremendous power. You may carry one in your pocket and always eat a meal in peace of mind, for you know that the tablet will get you the best results from such a meal. These tablets contain nothing but Marmola, Cascara Aromatic and Peppermint Water, but they do their work so pleasantly, harmlessly, and so fast that you will be surprised. They are sold by every druggist, price 75 cents per case, or if you prefer you may write The Marmola Company, 606 Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich.

Struck a Rich Mine.

S. W. Bends, of Coal City, Ala., says he struck a perfect mine of health in Dr. King's New Life Pills for they cured him of liver and kidney trouble after 12 years of suffering. They are the best pills on earth for constipation, malaria, headache, dyspepsia, debility. 25c at Robt. R. Bellamy's.

Handsome Banking House For Progressive Wilmington Bank

The accompanying cut shows the front of the elegant new bank building which the Wilmington Savings and Trust Company will erect at once on its site recently purchased on Princess street, near Front. The entire building will be utilized by the bank in the conduct of its business. The front will be of granite and stone, and the remainder of the building of brick and reinforced concrete construction. Not an ounce of wood will be used in the entire construction, even the desks, doors and partitions to be of art metal, thereby reducing to a minimum all chance of fire.

The building will have a frontage of 32 feet on Princess street, and a depth of 100 feet. Though containing only one story, the building will have the height and general effect of a three-story edifice. Every modern convenience and safeguard is to be installed, and when completed the Wilmington Savings and Trust Company building will compare favorably with any of the up-to-date bank or trust company buildings in the larger northern cities. The management has thought out a number of conveniences for its patrons, including a private ladies' room which will contain writing desks, special 'phone, lavatory, etc. A committee room for the exclusive use of customers has been provided for, and it is expected that friends of the bank will use this for special meetings, consultations, etc. The larger and more commodious room for use of the bank's directors in the rear of building may also be used for this purpose where the number is greater than the smaller room will accommodate. Four special coupon closets have been specified, and in them the renters of safe deposit boxes will be as private as if at home.

The vault will be of the most modern and approved construction, with lining throughout of bessemer and chrome steel. A filler of asbestos brick will render it absolutely fireproof, even in event of a general conflagration, and an electric alarm system will be an additional protection to make the vault absolutely burglar proof. In this vault will be installed 1,000 steel safety deposit boxes of latest pattern, varying in size from a few inches high to those large enough to care for the securities of a millionaire. The safe deposit portion of the vault will be divided from that to be used by the bank for its own securities, and there will in this way be no occasion for an outsider to enter the bank's strong box in order to get at a safety deposit box.

The interior finish will be of marble, art metal, and bronze, with cork sanitary carpet inside the working room behind the fixtures.

The site purchased by the Wilmington Savings and Trust Company is almost identically the same as where the little bank began business twenty-two and one-half years ago. It did a safe and profitable business there until 1905, when its rapid growth made it necessary to seek larger quarters. Again, five years later, the same condition confronts the bank—its present quarters on Front street being inadequate for the handling of the bank's rapidly growing list of depositors. Hence the decision to erect a building that will not only be in keeping with its business and a credit to the city, but that will be large enough to accommodate its business comfortably.

It is a pleasure to record a history of such success as has characterized the Wilmington Savings and Trust Company, and few banks in the entire country can boast of a more prosperous career. Organized in 1888 with a capital of $25,000, the company has since paid in cash dividends to stockholders more than $100,000, has given them a stock dividend of $300.00 for every $100.00 first issued, and now each $100 of new stock receives annual dividends of 12 per cent., and will sell readily for $300. In other words, every original share of stock, including dividends received, would now be worth $1,300 for each $100 invested. Before the recent increase in capital, the Wilmington Savings and Trust Company had larger deposits in proportion to its capital than any other bank in the United States.

CONFEDERATE REUNION.

Old Soldiers Gather at Elizabethtown. A Great Day.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., Aug. 27.—A "red letter day" hardly expresses it when the veterans' reunion is the programme for the day in Elizabethtown. If never before coined, slangy "she did herself proud" would naturally suggest itself as the real expression for the occasion. A downpour from the skies could not efface the sunshine gleaming on all faces.

Two features bade fair to make this reunion the exception to the usual festive season, but with merely a brush, they passed on, leaving the memory of a happy day. The commandant, W. S. Clark, was absent from sickness and the orator B. F. Dixon, for cause unexplained, left an expectant audience mourning for the good things that were to have been theirs. Rev. Mr. Corey, in his stead, delivered a much commended address, fitting the occasion. Particularly effective was the portrayal of the reunion in the great beyond.

The announcement of dinner put the vets on the quickstep. Royal was the spread. At the conclusion of a thorough discussion of this most important feature, the tap of the bell, recalled the old soldiers to the election of officers, etc. It was decided that some history be given in pamphlet form of those now surviving, one person in each township being appointed for the gathering of data.

Veteran George Hall and Miss Mary McDowell rendered "Dixie" on violin and organ to the full enjoyment of the audience, and the reunion dissolved into the past. First Monday in September decides when they go into camp.

J. J. Adams, the type of man to represent the Bible Society, presented all desiring them a beautiful testament, suiting the vision of the man who endured the hardship inflicted by our most uncivil war.

An hour or two spent as suited the individual and the gamut included Mr. Jim Dyson's famous orchestra, a ball game, contest for box of candy at the Clark Brothers, a liberal patronage of Mr. Walter Hall's fine cool drinks, etc., and the four or five hundred visitors left the old town, its memory of the day that had been.

ROOSEVELT TO WESTERNERS

His Address Yesterday at Cheyenne, Wyoming—In His Natural Element and Gave Breezy, Interesting Speech.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 27.—Theodore Roosevelt delivered the following address here today:

"When, at the close of my hunting trip in Africa, I reached the borders of civilization, the first invitation I accepted was this, to visit the capital of Wyoming on the day when the people of the frontier came together to commemorate their achievements. I was glad it was so, because I have a peculiar feeling for the men and women of what used to be called the 'Far West', and especially for those of the cattle country.

"For a number of years I lived on a ranch on the Little Missouri, sharing work and play, good fortune and bad fortune, with my neighbors; working on the round-up, serving as delegate from the Little Missouri round-up district to the Montana Stock Growers' Association, and even at times acting as deputy sheriff at my end of the country. I count those years as among the most valuable of my life, because nothing breeds such community of feeling as to work with one's fellow-men at their life tasks, and to learn to know their feelings by actually sharing them. The man of the West, throughout the successive stages of Western growth, has always been one of the two or three most typical figures—indeed, I am tempted to say, the most typical figure—in American life, and no man can really understand our country and appreciate what it really is and what it promises unless he has the fullest and closest sympathy with the ideals and aspirations of the West. The prime reason for this is to be found in the fact that the Westerner is so good an American. He is an American first and foremost; for this is the great lesson, friends, that all of us need to learn and to keep, the lesson that it is unimportant whether a man lives North or south, East or West, provided he is genuinely and in good faith an American, that he feels every part of the United States as his own, and that he is honestly desirous to uphold the interests of all other Americans in whatever sections of the country they may dwell.

"A hundred years ago, when men spoke of the West they meant the country between the Alleghanies and the Mississippi. Fifty years ago the white man's West took in Minnesota, Iowa and Kansas, and the skipped across to California and Oregon. The country of the great plains and the Rockies, the country in which you, whom I am now addressing, lead your lives and do your work, has grown up within my own lifetime. I myself saw and took part in the closing years of the pioneer period, and it was my great privilege to work side by side with the pioneers—the ranchmen, the miners, the cow punchers, the muleskinners, the bull-whackers—who actually opened up the country. I have seen the herds and flocks of the cattlemen and sheepmen supplant the game; I have seen the fortunate movement by which the small farm has tended gradually to take the place of the great unfenced ranch. I now travel in every comfort on railways across lands which when I first rode across them, were still the home of the Indian and the buffalo; and I find cities where one can obtain not merely comfort, but luxury, in the places where 30 years ago there was not a building beyond a log hut or a dobie

RECOGNITION OF HOLY BIBLE

Determined Effort for Statutory Requirement in Curriculum of Every Educational Institution Receiving Assistance.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 27.—Originating in Pittsburg and radiating thence all over the world a determined effort is being made to have statutory recognition of the Holy Bible in the curriculum of every educational institution receiving State or Federal aid in the United States and governmental assistance in foreign countries.

At the World's Christian Citizenship Conference to be held in Philadelphia in November next, this feature of religious teaching will be a paramount issue. The subject is attracting very great attention in all sections of the country and the fact that those who seek to bar the Bible out of the public schools seem to be gaining ground in the courts.

The Supreme Court of Illinois has recently handed down the most sweeping decision ever written against the study of the Bible in the public schools and this utterance has fanned the issue into a roaring flame throughout the whole Christian world.

The Supreme Court of Wisconsin in the case of the State of Wisconsin ex rel Frederick Weiss, W. H. Morrissey, Thomas Mooney, James McBride, J. C. Burns and John Corbett, appellants, vs. District Board of School District, No. 8, of the city of Edgerton, decided against the use of the Bible in that district on the ground that it is a sectarian book, and the constitution of the State forbids sectarian instruction in the public schools. It was held, however, that some things in the Bible are not sectarian, such as the doctrine of a Supreme Being of infinite wisdom, power and goodness, and that it is the duty of all men to adore, obey and love Him, since all religious sects so believe and teach. This opinion does not bar the use of selections from the Bible, but it does bar the use of it as a whole because the court holds it to contain many things that are sectarian.

The Supreme Court of Nebraska rendered a decision of which the following statement is a summary: "Exercises by a teacher in a public school in a school building, in school hours and in the presence of the pupils, consisting of the reading of passages from the Bible and in the singing of songs and hymns and offering prayer to the Deity in accordance with the doctrines beliefs, customs or usages of sectarian churches or religious organizations is forbidden by the constitution of this State." A rehearing of the case was rendered in which it was held that this opinion was not intended to bar the use of the Bible and certain forms of religious exercises, but only such use of the Bible and such exercises as are sectarian. The court, in this explanatory decision declared that the former opinion had been misunderstood, and plainly implied that there is a use of the Bible and that there are religious usages that are not sectarian and not forbidden by the Constitution.

The Attorneys General of some States and the State School Superintendents of others, among which are the States of Minnesota, Montana and Washington, have declared that all use of the Bible and all religious exercises are forbidden by the Constitution of those States, but no Supreme Court of any State has gone the length of the Supreme Court of Illinois. Christian citizens should take note of this

EK'S NEWS AT LUMBERTON

Politics Still Warm—More Accommodations Needed on Seaboard Air Line—Excursion to Richmond—Notes.

Lumberton, N. C., Aug. 27.—The decision of the State Executive Committee in the Sixth District Congressional muddle, means fore hot times in Robeson. Friends of Congressman Godwin and Mr. Clark are already working in earnest for their choice. By the time the county gets through with the two primaries, Congressional and county, no one can tell what will be the situation. Many of the best people are opposed to taking the iron-clad oath which is required to be swallowed before one is allowed to vote while others don't care. Messrs. Godwin and Clark were both here yesterday but neither one made any public talk. They both seemed busy among their friends, and were not talking for publication. As stated in this morning's Star, it seems to be an undeniable fact that Mr. Clark is gaining ground in this county.

It is the general opinion of people who travel on the Seaboard between Wilmington and Charlotte, that the time has arrived when it is absolutely necessary to the comfort of the traveling public that the railroad company put another car on each of its passenger trains to accommodate the steadily increasing volume of travel. We were on the train this week going to Charlotte, and after passing Hamlet the train was crowded so that many people were sitting on the ends of the seats while others were standing. When the train left Charlotte coming this way the coach supposed to be used by colored people exclusively was half full of white people, ladies and gentlemen. This was no special occasion—it is every day business. When a train reaches a station and discharges a number of passengers there are just as many or more ready to take their places. It seems to us, from personal observation, that it is absolutely necessary that more room be made.

Yesterday morning when Mr. Forney Davis, residing several miles in the country, drove into town, when near the new brick building that is being erected on Fifth street, between the river and postoffice, his mule took fright at an automobile and dashed off, striking a pile of timber and turning the buggy completely over. Mr. Davis received a very painful cut on the head and was otherwise bruised.

Sheriff McNeill was notified by phone yesterday morning that a young negro down town was offering a horse for sale at an unusually low price, which created the suspicion that the horse was stolen. The sheriff hurried down and after questioning the boy, placed him under arrest. The boy told the sheriff who the horse belonged to and about where they would find the gentleman, and in a short time the owner was located, who told the sheriff the thing was alright and the boy was released. One thing is sure about the matter, whoever had been driving the horse should be punished as the animal had been driven out of all reason.

Mr. Irwin Grantham, who has for some time held a position in the Pope Drug Store, has resigned and gone to his home in the country where he will enjoy himself until the Fall terms of school begin when he will enter college. Mr. Grantham is succeeded in the drug store by Mr. Earle Carter, of Maxton.

The James Adams 10 cent show under canvass is heading this way and is expected here in a few weeks.

In the death of William Rowland, who died a few days ago at the advanced age of 85, passed away another of the most highly respected old time colored men. He had spent his life in this county, and it is doubtful if any colored citizen ever lived here who was more highly respected by all our people, regardless of color.

While on his way to town yesterday morning, Mr. A. S. Tyner, of Buie, met another team on McNeill's bridge, three miles from town, and in passing the vehicle driven in the opposite direction, was driven as far out as possible in order to make plenty of room for passing. The mule stepped on a plank which was rotten near the end and one foot went through, which took some time to extricate it. Mr. Tyner says the mule was badly scratched and bruised, but not badly injured, though he expected the county would be asked for some damages.

Some changes have been made in the style of the proposed new paper for Lumberton. It will be an eight-page, 40 column paper, and it is the intention of the management to publish the first issue on Wednesday, September 7th.

Thursday's Robesonian contained a letter from Mr. Marley relative to the Hamphrey controversy. We can't see much to the letter. All Mr. Marley knows is what the Republicans told him. There is a mystery about the matter. Why should the Republicans be the people to start a thing of that kind? Time will tell.

It now looks as if something very interesting to fishermen in this section will be doing at the next term of court, which meets here on Monday, September 12th.

Capt. J. C. Jones and Mr. W. K. Bethune are making arrangements to run an excursion from here to Richmond on Wednesday, September 7th. Fare for the round trip will be $3.50, which is cheaper than staying at home. Provision will be made for both white and colored. The excursion will leave here Wednesday morning and leave Richmond Friday morning on the return trip.

Dr. J. W. Griffith, of Greensboro, has spent the week in Lumberton, looking after his interests. He has had a force of men engaged making repairs wherever needed, among the places being Jno. Leak's barber shop, which when completed, will look like a new place. Dr. Griffith intimates that he will in a short time erect several new cottages which will be for rent. We hope he will see it to his interest to rush the work as it is a hard matter now to rent a house of any kind here. Lumberton needs more dwellings and more business buildings for rent.

Some time ago we tried to persuade a gentleman doing business here that he needed the Daily Star, and if not the daily, then he should have the Sunday edition anyhow. He replied that he was too busy to read during the week and on Sunday he devoted his spare time from church services to reading Sunday School and other religious papers—just would not allow anything else to go in his house on Sunday. Two Sundays ago, between 9 and 10 o'clock, we saw the gentleman assisting in carrying a fine bunch of bananas which he had sold, to be used by a fruit vender out of town. He helped carry them three blocks, and that while Sunday School was in session. And we didn't fall dead.

The new flour mill at Pembroke began operation this week, and as to the flour being of a high grade there is no doubt. Mr. R. D. Caldwell, one of the prime movers in the enterprise, was present when the mill was put in motion and secured the first bag of flour which was ground. Mrs. Caldwell, who never enjoys anything good unless she divides with her neighbors, remembered the Star man with a sample of the flour—a sample large enough to supply his family for a whole week, and we know whereof we speak when we say that it is good with a big G.

County Superintendent J. R. Poole will leave Monday for Chapel Hill to attend the association of County Superintendents which will be in session from August 30th, to September 3rd. When anything is going on for the advancement of the cause of education, Prof. Poole may be easily found somewhere not far away.

The V. & C. S. and A. C. L. will operate an excursion to Richmond next Thursday, September 1st, the fare for the round trip from Lumberton being $3.50.

Mr. Rexford Stephens, who recently graduated at King's Business College, and has since been engaged with The Robesonian, has resigned his position with the paper to take one with the V. & C. S. He will enter upon his new duties Monday. Having worked with Mr. Stephens in the newspaper office at different times during the past few years, we are prepared to say that the railroad people are to be congratulated. He is a worker in all that the word implies.

Farmers from different sections tell us that the crops have improved more since the first of July than they ever saw, and indications now point to good crops though a little late.

Over thirty farmers in this section, ranging in distance up to 15 miles from this place, have contracted during the week for telephone service. The farmers see at a glance the advantage it will be to them.

Mr. L. C. Townsend, who went to Morganton the first of the week, returned last night, accompanied by Mrs. Townsend and little son who have been spending some time with relatives at that place.

Mrs. Geo. B. McLeod and daughter, Miss Irene, returned this week from the mountains where they had been for several weeks. They were accompanied home by Mr. McLeod and son, Mr. Badger, who went up last week for the purpose of returning home with them.

Miss Amelia Linkhaw left Thursday for New York, where she will purchase Fall and Winter millinery goods for Messrs. Caldwell & Carlyle.

We have been told that within a radius of less than two miles, not over three miles from town, there has been killed during the Summer no less than nine large chicken snakes, five of which were killed at or near one farm house. The other four were divided between two other homes, two being killed at each place. One of the snakes was killed just after it had devoured a whole brood of young chickens. Everybody should make it a point to never miss killing a chicken snake when the opportunity presents itself.

The Pope Drug Company is keeping right up with the crowd that moves early in the morning and now opens at 6 o'clock instead of 7, about the hour at which the drug stores generally open.

Decorators arrived this week and are now engaged in beautifying the interior of the new First Baptist Church building.

A short time ago a lady residing in the country not far from town, heard a commotion among her poultry and went out hurriedly to investigate. In the lot was a turkey hen with nine little turkeys, possibly seven or eight weeks old. When the lady arrived on the scene two tramp dogs had caught the mother turkey and both of them were holding her down biting her with all their might. When they discovered the lady approaching they hastily retreated, but they had killed the turkey. The only remedy for such depredations is the shot gun.

The Best Hour of Life.

is when you do some great deed or discover some wonderful fact. This hour came to J. R. Pitt, of Rocky Mt., N. C., when he was suffering intensely, as he says, "from the worst cold I ever had, I then proved to my great satisfaction, what a wonderful cold and cough cure Dr. King's New Discovery is. For after taking one bottle, I was entirely cured. I can't say anything too good of a medicine like that." It's the surest and best remedy for diseased lungs, hemorrhages, lagrippe, asthma, hay fever—any throat or lung trouble 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Robt. R. Bellamy.

To the Merchants of the South

LESS than ten years ago we started the first modern method shoe factory in the South.

This year we will manufacture more shoes than any of our competitors in such old and well-known markets as New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, although some of these manufacturers have been doing a successful business for thirty or forty years.

We have demonstrated that we can manufacture a shoe which will wear longer than other shoes, and will look well as long as it lasts. We have demonstrated that our workmanship is superior to the workmanship in the factories of the West, and that it equals the workmanship put on shoes of the same price made anywhere on earth.

We are selling more shoes in the South than any of our competitors. We are the only manufacturers outside of New England who have ever been able to sell their product successfully in the large Eastern cities, such as Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston. Our values justify our selling our product anywhere. We prefer selling the output of our factories in the South, as this is our legitimate territory. If you are not buying your shoes from us, write us at once, and we will notify our salesman to call to see you with his spring samples.

More than fifty salesmen leave Lynchburg the first week in September with our line of samples, including a complete line of Oxfords, Sailor Ties, Pumps, and all of the latest novelties in spring footwear. These men cover the South thoroughly and if you wish to handle our line next season, write us at once; otherwise they might place the line with your competitor.

Watch the newspapers. All of the leading daily and evening papers of the South are carrying our advertisements. Millions of Southern people read these advertisements every day. Thousands of people are wearing Craddock shoes that did not wear them yesterday. To-morrow thousands of people will know of Craddock shoes that haven't heard of them to-day.

If you want to sell the best selling line of shoes manufactured in this country; if you wish to buy from the largest Southern manufacturer; if you wish to sell shoes which actually wear longer than other shoes at the same prices, and if you wish to buy the most widely advertised line, the line which is being talked about and being called for, write or wire us to-day.

fact and consider whether or not they are making their influence felt as they ought in the management of the public school system.

When discussing this acute issue Rev. Dr. J. S. Martin, general superintendent of the National Reform Association, No. 209 Ninth street, Pittsburg, Pa., said:

"The Holy Bible is being taken up for serious study in all the greater colleges of the country, while the minor educators identified with the public school system, under political duress, possibly, are quietly but effectively omitting all reference to the Bible during school hours in some cases and subordinating it to other studies where some observance of the Bible-reading custom is compulsory.

"The announcement by the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, of a new group of studies in the college, to be known as the 'Bible Group' is of great significance. Many of the most important advances in higher education have had their origin in this University, which has from its foundation been true to the idea that the training of men to become leaders in matters of the mind and spirit requires largeness and broadness of view in those who teach.

"The correlation of courses, and the grouping of such as are mutually dependent and mutually illuminating, is the fundamental principle of what is known as the 'Group System.'

The Bible has always been sudied at the University of Pennsylvania and for those who were especially preparing for the work of the ministry there have been courses in the Old and New Testaments in their original languages. In more recent years the fact that the Bible is a basis for purely literary study of the highest kind, whether in the English translation, or in the Hebrew and Greek, has received general recognition, so that the book is now included quite apart from all questions of theology or even religion, except in the most general sense, among the courses in English literature. That a knowledge of the Bible is essential to the understanding of our literature and our own civilization is an accepted fact. There is not a nation in Europe or America, and it will soon be true of Asia and Africa, that has not been profoundly influenced in its social order, as well as in its political constitution, by the principles laid down by the writers of the Old Testament and the New, who through members of a small Oriental people, have by their spiritual ideas and intellectual conceptions of the purposes of life and the interpretation of history, given to the world a literature which is today the highest utterance of the race.

"Recognizing these facts the intelligent man of today is studying the Bible for knowledge of human history in remote periods as well as in those that are nearer to our own time, for comparison with our own and other literatures and as the source from which, if its principles are put into practice, will come the solution of the problems today. The relations of man to man, of man to the State ,and of man to God are not simply matters of theology, or the dogma of any sect. They represent recent questions which each man and each combination of men must answer and are answering in some way. The study of ancient law, ancient history and ancient civilization has no more accessible or satisfactory basis than is furnished by the Bible. Many of the most important types of literature exist within its pages in perfect specimens, each of its kind, so that the student of literature finds there abundant material.

"The ultimate appeal of the Bible is the same as that of all great literature and the study of its contents, for whatever purpose, is rendered more effective when the subjects are presented from many sides.

"The idea that the study of the Bible is a subject reserved for the clergy and divinity students has given way to the idea that the Bible should constitute an important part of the education of every man who desires to understand his own period.

"The 'Bible Group' will include courses in Hebrew and Greek, the study of the English Bible as literature, the study of the historic conditions in the midst of which the various books were written, the relations of the Orient and Occident which have their most notable expressions in the New Testament, written by the Jews in the language of the Greeks, the study of the early history of the Christian church together with many lectures on Archeology and history. More courses will be given by men who are experts in their respective subjects and the combining and correlating of these courses will afford an oportunity such as is offered to students at no other University for the study of the sources of many of what we often regard as modern ideas.

"At the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis the chairman of the Bible study committee is the first ranking midshipman at the academy. Through his leadership, 340 midshipmen at meeting weekly in Bible groups, while 35 of their number are acting as teachers, receiving instruction for their work from an officer of the faculty.

"At the University of Wisconsin the student who has been specially influential this year in the Bible campaign is probably the leading student in the university, being one of the most prominent men in the crew and on other athletic teams. An alumnus of Cornell writing from Ithaca, recently remarked that last season in every Greek letter fraternity at Cornell there was a group of men studying the English Bible. He added that this study was becoming a popular and permanent interest of undergraduate life. For two years an employed Bible secretary has been giving his entire time to the voluntary Bible work at Yale, while at Princeton, the University of Michigan, the University of Illinois, and other institutions, the equivalent of one employed man's time has been devoted to this student interest. The development of this activity among the large State institutions of the South and West is also of striking importance. In 1908-09, ten State institutions in those particular regions reported an actual attendance of 3,678 students in voluntary Bible classes, the superintending agency being the college Young Men's Christian Associations. This fact is a cause for reflection as one realizes that in most of these State universities no study of this nature is furnished in the curriculum."

house. The men who did this work were engaged in the final stages of conquering the continent; and it was their privilege to do one of the great works of all time, to do their part in the performance of an epic feat in the history of the progress of mankind.

"I have used the word progress. The West stands for growth, for progress. So must the whole American people stand. A great democracy must be progressive or it will soon cease to be either great or democratic. No Nation, no State, no party, can stand still. It must either go forward or go backward; and it becomes useless if it goes backward. Therefore, I greet you men of the West, and I stand for progress as all men must stand who are progressive.

"The pioneers and their immediate successors won victory only by proving that they possesed great, masterful qualities which lie at the foundation of national greatness. There are certain well-meaning men of intellectual cultivation, but lacking mental and moral robustness, who complain continually that they find American life, and especially the life of those American communities emerging from the pioneer stage, crude and without genius or beauty. Genius is a fine thing for a Nation, but character is a still finer thing, and though beauty is good, strength is an even greater good.

"The men who have made this great Republic of the West what it is, and especially the men who have turned it into a continental commonwealth, have possessed in the highest degree the great virile virtues of strength, courage, energy, and undaunted and unwavering resolution. Their typical leaders—of whom Abraham Lincoln, though the most exceptional, was the most typical—have possessed keen intelligence, and a character not merely strong but lofty, a character exalted by the fact that great power was accompanied by a high and fine determination to use this great power for the common good for the advancement of mankind. The pioneer days are over, save in a greater variety of good qualities than were needed on the frontier. There is need at present to encourage the development of new abilities which can be brought to high perfection only by a kind of training useless in pioneer times; but these new qualities can only supplement, and never supplant, the old, homely virtues; the need for the special and distinctive pioneer virtues is as great as ever. In other words, as our civilization grows older and more complex, while it is true that we need to dvelop men whose lives are devoted wholly to the pursuit of special objects, it is yet also true that we need a greater and not a less development of the fundamental frontier virtues. These virtues include the power of self-help, together with the power of joining with others for mutual help, and, what is especially important, the feeling of comradeship, of social good-fellowship. Any man who had the good fortune to live among the old frontier conditions must, in looking back, realize how vital was this feeling of general comradeship and social fellowship. There were good men and bad men in the new communities just as in the old communities, and the conditions on the frontier were such that the qualities of the good and bad alike were rather more strikingly manifested than in older communities; but among the men who tried to lead hard working, decent lives, there was a feeling of genuine democracy, which represented an approach to the American ideal which we certainly should do everything in our power to preserve. We did not try to say that men were equal when they were not equal, but we did our best to secure something like an equality of opportunity and an equality of reward for good service; and, moreover, each man expected to be received, and, on the whole, was received, wherever he went, on the footing that his merits warranted.

"Now, so far as possible these qualities and the conditions that bring about these qualities should be kept in the great States which are growing out of the old frontier communities. We need to strive for the general social betterment of the people as a whole, and yet to encourage individual liberty and set high reward on individual initiative up to the point where they become detrimental to the general welfare. In continually and earnestly striving for this betterment of social and economic conditions in our complex industrial civilization, we should work in the old frontier spirit of rugged strength and courage, and yet with the old frontier spirit of brotherly comradeship and good will. I do not mean that we should refrain from hating wrong; on the contrary, I would preach fiery wrath against wrong. But I would not preach such wrath against the wrong-doer; save in those cases where his wrong-doing really is due to evil moral attributes on his part, and not to a wrong or false system, of which he is almost as much the victim as the beneficiary. Sometimes a wrong represents the deliberate wickedness of the wrong-doer, in which case the remedy is to punish him; but sometimes it represents the effects of a false social system, in which case the right course is to alter what is false in the system. Both principles need to be kept in view as guides to our conduct, and it is necessary sometimes to work in accordance with one and sometimes in accordance with the other.

"Before ending I wish to say a word on something which I believe should especially interest all men who live in the open country, and especially all men who during the past thirty years have lived and worked on ranches, or have done their life work in the wilder parts of our land, on the great plains or among the mountains. The phase of our National life in which the stockman, the mining prospector, the frontier farmer and their associates were the chief characters, was not only a very important but also a very picturesque phase. Often such a phase passes without any great artist arising to commemorate it. The old-time backwoodsman, for instance, the man of the back country who lived in the Eastern forests through which the waters ran eastward to the Atlantic and westward to the Mississippi, passed away without any painter or sculptor arising who possessed at once both the keenness of vision to see what a vital and picturesque figure the backwoodsman was, and the genius adequately to present that figure. The artists who saw the picturesqueness of the backwoodsman lacked the genius adequately to commemorate it; while the artists of real ability unfortunately had their eyes turned towards Europe, and lacked the robust originality—which the novelist Cooper showed—to see where their chance lay to do a great work. But in our generation, for our good fortune a great artist arose who was capable of seeing and of recording the infinite picturesqueness of the life of the plains and the Rockies. Of course I speak of Frederick Remington. He was one of those Americans who by his achievements distinctly deserved well of America. He worked with pencil, with brush, with chisel; he was both a painter and a sculptor. His pictures and his few bronzes are equally good. When my own regiment, a typically Western regiment, recruited mainly from the men of the great plains and the mountains, was disbanded at Montauk Point, the officers and enlisted men joined in giving me Remington's bronze Bronco Buster; a gift which I thought peculiarly appropriate coming from such a body of men. In Remington's pictures all the most vivid and characteristic features of the Western pioneer life which is just closing were set forth, and he has commemorated forever the men of the plains and the mountains as they actually were. The cowboy is his favorite type, but the mining prospector, the frontier farmer, the man who guides ox wagon or mule team, the soldier, the Indian—all appear. Now I wish very much that these men themselves would in turn provide a monument for the great artist, the sum of whose activities represents such a feature of American achievement, and, above all, represents the commemoration of some of the most interesting figures that have ever appeared on the stage of American life. A statue should be raised to Remington by some really first-class artist. Here at Cheyenne in this gathering many hundreds of the men have come together who were themselves typical leaders in, and representatives of, the very life which Remington so portrayed that it will always live. I hope that these men will join together, arrange the appointment of a committee, and start to raise funds for the erection of such a statue.

PHILADELPHIA STARTED IT.

Movement for Improvement of Waterways of Atlantic Coast.

Progressive Philadelphians first conceived the idea of banding the cities along the coast together for the purpose of agitating deeper waterways. There was need of action, for the West was yearly grabbing all the choicest government appropriations for rivers and harbors. The East had to be content with what was left. Usually its portion was so small that no comprehensive job could be undertaken in any of its seaports because of lack of funds. Most of the work was done piecemeal, and was, therefore, unsatisfactory.

Philadelphia had suffered along with her sister cities. Some of her citizens asserted that it was not right that the West should have a monopoly on the rivers and harbors money. Therefore, they agreed to unite to battle for what they believed belonged to them. At the same time they thought that it might be feasible to let other cities know what they were contemplating, and thus persuade them to join in a common cause.

This was in 1907, a little over three years ago. After the Philadelphians had organized, they went down to Baltimore, where they found a ready response to their plea for co-operation in the work they had undertaken.

But it was not until last year at Norfolk, Va., that the association really got under way. Up to that time the officers had attempted spasmodically to extend the membership northward along the coast, but since that time the membership has increased by leaps and bounds, especially in the Southern and Middle Atlantic States.

The government survey, meanwhile, having been authorized at an expense of $100,000, it was decided to proceed from Norfolk and the South to New England, and Providence, which of all the Northern cities, had manifested the strongest interesst in the movement, was chosen as the meeting place. The Providence convention, therefore, will tend not only to define New England's attitude upon the transportation question as it is affected by the improvement of inland waterways, but it will be the occasion of such a fraternizing of Northern and Southern people upon social and commercial lines, as has not been witnessed for many decades. There is no doubt that interest in deeper waterways has been fully aroused. "The West," says the Providence Journal, "must henceforth beware, for the East means business."

THE FATNESS OF HEALTH.

Samose Fills Out the Curves and Makes Thin People Fat.

Perfect health and good, solid beautiful flesh can only come through the use of Samose, the remarkable flesh forming food.

The Best $3.50 Shoe in the World is Made in Lynchburg, Va.

THE South makes the best $3.50 shoe that money can buy or skilled labor put together. The South can well be proud of this fact, for it is a boast made good over generations of shoemakers in New England and all the other shoe sections combined.

$3.50 or $4.00 paid for a CRADDOCK SHOE will buy, for any Southern gentleman, more good leather, more style, more fit and better workmanship than any other shoe manufacturer can afford to offer at this price.

Why? Because climatic, living and labor conditions are more favorable than in New England. Because shoes can be shipped out of Lynchburg to any point in the South for less than from the West or New England. Because rents are less, Insurance is less, Taxes are less.

To sum it up in a few words—the makers of the CRADDOCK SHOE can give Southerners more value, detail for detail, point for point, more actual money value in leather, style, durability and comfort, at this price, than any other manufacturer in the world, because it actually costs less to do business. This saving is put into the wear and worth of the CRADDOCK SHOE.

To compete with these natural advantages and sell at the same price New England and Western makers scrimp and cut and shave the difference out of the shoes they send South.

In the hidden places they scalp a cent, a half cent, a fraction here and there. These make up the cost of competition—but what about the value of the shoe they offer?

The CRADDOCK SHOE—made by the most skilled, native, white labor—made from honeststock, —sold at an honest price, will wear thirty days longer than any other shoe at the same price.

Have You An Employee Who Drinks?

A brilliant man perhaps who was once your most trusted employee? Maybe he is still all right—as brilliant as ever—when he is sober. But you can't keep him in the same responsible position because you never can trust him any more. And so you have to cut his wages and finally when all patience is exhausted and all hope seems gone—you have to discharge him and set him adrift.

Yet in spite of everything you hate to do it. You hate to see a good man go like that—for you have spent so many years in training him and good men are so hard to get. You know you can't train up another man as good in four months or even in four years. But did you know that in from four to six weeks you could bring your trusted employee back to his old self? A credit to himself—a joy to his family—and a money-making investment to you?

Too good to be true you say! Not a bit of it. We have cured 6500 patients here at the Greensboro Keeley Institute the past eighteen years since I've been president of it and the great majority of them are happy and prosperous men today. We can do just as much for your old employee. For his sake, for his family's sake, for your own sake, write today for our descriptive booklet.

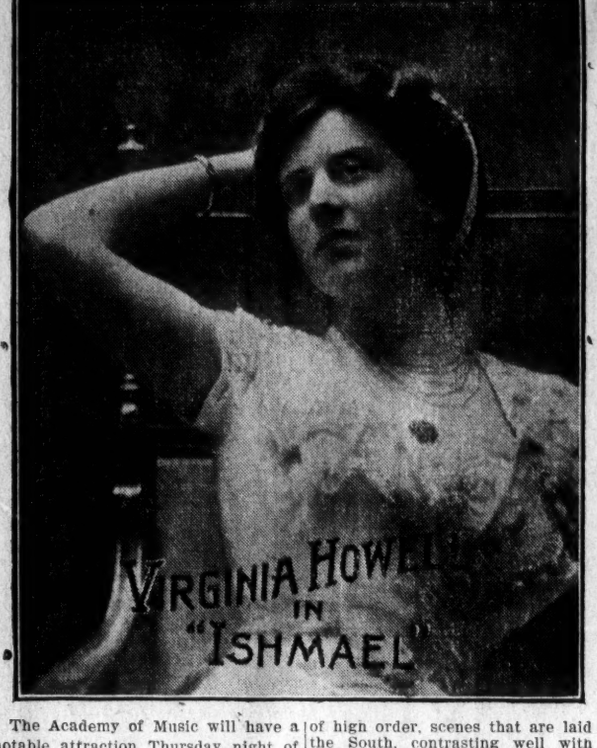
THEATRICAL



The Academy of Music will have a notable attraction Thursday night of this week when a dramatization of Mrs. E. D. E. N. Southworth's well known novel, "Ishmael," will be presented in this city for the first time. Many thousands of people have read this book but it was not until recently that the dramatic unities and interest contained therein were seized upon for stage purposes. The adapter has succeeded in conveying the vitality, the potent lines, well defined characterizations, the charm of the heroine and the sordidness of the Viscount as depicted by Mrs. Southworth's novel into the stage version, and there is a goodly portion of humor to relieve the tense scenes. Visually the play is of high order, scenes that are laid in the South, contrasting well with a ragged view of Scotland and a representation of Washington life several decades ago. To Virginia Howell has been entrusted the leading role, that of Claudia. She is a Southern girl of attractive personality and magnetism and an actress of distinction, dramatic force and emotional power. Miss Howell has had a wide experience in theatricals since she gained fame in amateur performances in South Carolina. Her service in stock companies in the North has developed her natural ability and given to her facility, poise, deftness and surety of touch, a ready power of expression and a fine enunciation to which a rich voice adds value. Miss Howell is a Daughter of the Confederacy and a Daughter of the American Revolution.

MARVELOUS PSYCHIC POWER

Paladino Does Stunts on Steamer in Mid-Ocean That Mystify All on Board—Interesting Story Told of New Yorker.

New York, Aug. 27.—An interesting story of an impromptu seance given by Mme. Paladino, the Italian medium, on board the Hamburg American liner Koenig Albert on its last voyage to Naples, is told by K. M. Turner, inventor of the dictograph, who returned from Europe this week.

This remarkable little woman whose occult powers mystified some of the leading scientists and physchologists of the country upon the occasion of her recent visit, was a second cabin passenger and for most of the sea journewy remained in her room having little or no intercourse with her fellow passengers.

The ship had reached mid-ocean when Captain Seyen invited the medium to give him and a few friends, including Turner, a private demonstration of her materialistic powers. She assented and was escorted to the chart room of the ship. This room was about 15 feet square and, in addition to the usual number of charts, contained a table, two chairs, a settee, a large German flag, and a violincello. Besides the woman, only the captain, Turner and another passenger were admitted to the room, the door of which was locked after they had entered.

This precaution was considered advisable despite the fact that the medium was traveling alone and could not have enlisted the assistance of a confederate even had she elected to do so.

"The incandescent lights were glowing brightly when the seance started", said Mr. Turner in explaining the incident, "and remained so almost up to its termination. Paladino sat down at the table and beckoned to the captain and I to hold her hands. The third party present held her feet. Presently the table began to ascend from the floor. It rose probably three feet and remained there stationary for half a minute, apparently as secure as if it were standing on terra firma.

Captain Seyen was asked to pull it down but couldn't. It was then lowered and danced around the room, first on one leg and then on another. The table was restored to its original position and I was invited to lift it from the floor. Though it weighed but a few pounds, I was unable to move it, pull on it as I might. To all intents and purposes it might have been weighted down with tons of pig iron. A pillow resting on the settee suddenly arose in the air and glided across the room, touched the wall on the opposite side and returned to the couch. Following this bewildering demonstration of the woman's ability to subjugate things in the room to her will and make them do as she desired, the big imperial flag on the wall left its place and moved toward us, its folds spread out before a veritable gale of wind. In quick succession the violincello skipped into the air, my hat was lifted from my head, sailed toward the ceiling and presently re-deposited itself on my head, all in apparent response to the psychic powers of this extraordinary woman. In a corner of the room ten feet away from every one, a mysterious hand seized me by the arm and shook me. I grabbed for the hand, but there was nothing there. In an instant it seized my shoulder and again shook me. All the while, Paladino, in a sort of trance-like stillness sat in her chair apparently oblivious of that which was transpiring. She asked us to lower, but not extinguish the lights. We did so. In an instant a flaming human hand appeared before us. The spectacle was the most thrilling and awe-inspiring exhibition of supernatural powers one could imagine.

"For all but the last feature of the seance the lights were burning brightly and it would have been impossible for the woman to have used any part of her body in the execution of these phenomenal feats without us observing it.

"Whatever strange power she possesses which enables her to do these marvelous things, seems to proceed from some unnatural source. The woman is apparently an ignorant woman of the peasant class and I firmly believe does not know how she does the things she does. Unquestionably she is an abnormal creature, endowed with unnatural powers, the full scope of which I am convinced she does not suspect.

"In the operation of her marvelous psychic powers, everything seems tractable to her will. The inanimate becomes animated in obedience to the mysterious spell she exercises, which imbues everything over which it is cast with a seeming intelligence that renders it amenable to her every caprice."

THE AUTO AND PROSPERITY

Manufacturers' Record Discourses on Mammoth Industry and Effect of Automobiling Upon the Country at Large—Millions.

(Manufacturers' Record.)

Eminent financiers and political economists, so-called, have been very much disturbed of late for fear that the automobile would prove the downfall of national prosperity. They are constantly bemoaning the money expended in the purchase and running of automobiles, but might they not turn their thought to the fact that, while large sums have been spent in the development of the automobile industry, there are many exceedingly strong points in favor of this industry and its value to the country? Might they not, on the other hand, turn their attention to the fact that this country annually spends about $2,500,000,000 for strong drink, which has not one redeeming thing in its favor?

Are we financially going to the dogs because we are spending perchance a few hundred million dollars a year on automobiles, which are helping to develop the country, helping to give health to many sick, helping to build good roads, helping to cause the broadening of national life by greater travel, and yet are not suffering, at least we are not told by the same financiers and political economists, from the money drain of the $2,500,000,000 spent on drink? The automobile builds no jails, nor penitentiaries; creates no necessity for enlarged police force, and builds no almshouses. The manufacture of the automobile gives employment to many thousands of skilled laborers, creates a demand for cotton and iron and steel and aluminum. It makes a market for the diversified products of the farm, and it awakens the whole country to a broader national life by the mingling of the people of all sections through travel. It is the greatest factor in the development of good roads, and good roads mean advancement in education, in religious activities, in business development, in enhanced value of farms, in the better cultivation of land, in lessening the burden of transportation to and from the farm, and thus increasing the prosperity of the farmers. Good roads mean the elimination of the loneliness of country life and the turning back of population from congestion in cities to country life again. Good roads building means more than material development; it is really a moral issue, because of its great effect upon the religious and educational work of the land.

The automobile has these things in its favor. On the other hand, drink, which costs the country ten times as much as the automobile, has nothing in its favor. It builds almshouses, jails and penitentiaries. It is the chief factor in requiring the maintenance of a great police force. Instead of building up health, as does the outdoor life of the automobile, it destroys health. It destroys life, and the cost of strong drink to the country, instead of being two and a half billions expended by the consumer, is probably twice as much in the aggregate through the enormous expenditures in the building and maintenance of jails, almshouses and penitentiaries, the burden put upon the land by this mighty curse.

We have not, however, seen any agitation on the part of the great rich about any panic coming by reason of drink, though they are free in their predictions of a panic by reason of the automobile. Is this due to shallowness of reasoning, which marks many of the statements put out by these so-called authorities? Is it due to lack of knowledge? Or is it due to the fact that the man who has been able, as a railroad president or a great financier, to ride in his palace car is not willing to see the ordinary every-day man able to ride in equal comfort in the motor car? At any rate, whatever may be the cause, may it not be well for those who are decrying the development of the motor car industry to give consideration to the fact that the nation's loss through drink is certainly ten times as great as the amount that is being expended for automobiles? On one side there are very great benefits; on the other side there is a curse beyond the power of words to depict. Are the financiers saying anything about the latter?

This reference to one form of extravagance inherently evil, which does not seem to attract the attention of men on the anxious bench about the future of the country, is for illustration. To it might be added pertinent comments upon the extravagances in the moving picture show craze, in the attempt of individuals in moderate circumstances to rival in dress and in household appearances the well-to-do, and in the speculation in mining schemes, whose emptiness is measured by the size of the advertisement of them. What are financiers doing to check these evils?

NEW ALFALFA SPECIES.

Dry Land Forage Crop Said to be Par Excellence.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 27.—Experienced farmers in Spokane county believe that the discovery of wild alfalfa, known to botanists as "medgicaga falcata," in Bonner county, Idaho, by W. H. Reideman, superintendent of the sub-experiment station, conducted by the United States government at Clagstone, Idaho, will solve the problem of dry land forage crops. The plant, which thrives in arid districts, where others die from heat and lack of moisture, is similar to tame alfalfa. The blossom is a pinkish white and resembles the plant brought to this country from Russia by Prof. Hanson, of South Dakota, who was sent abroad by the government to find a plant adapted to semi-arid districts. The pods are the same size and shape as those of tame alfalfa. Mr. Heideman found the plants in the Hoodoo Valley, formerly given over to placer gold miners, in a spot where there is no chance for even nature to sub-irrigate plant life and where all vegetation is practically dead. Prof. Heideman has sent specimens of the plant to prominent botanists for examination and identification. Experts say the plant has been searched for all over the world the last ten years.

Life on Panama Canal

has had one frightful drawback-malaria trouble—that has brought suffering and death to thousands. The germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "Three bottles completely cured me of a very severe attack of malaria," writes Wm. A. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had good health ever since." Cure stomach, liver, and kidney troubles, and prevent typhoid. 50c. Guaranteed by Robt. R. Bellamy.

MAXTON'S FIRST BALE.

Cotton Grown on Col. MacRae's Plantation Brought Fancy Price.

(By Long Distance Telephone.)

Maxton, N. C., Aug. 27.—The first bale of this year's cotton on the Maxton market was sold today by Col. E. F. MacRae, Democratic candidate for Senator in this district, and was purchased by Mr. J. W. Carter. The bale weighed 468 pounds and the cotton brought 16 3-4 cents a pound, the bidding between the several buyers being very lively. The cotton was grown on Col. MacRae's plantation a short distance from town. The first bale last year was sold on the same date, August 27th, and brought 11 1-2 cents. This year there was great rivalry among the cotton buyers as to which should have the honor of purchasing the first bale, hence the fine price paid for the staple. It is not expected that there will be much cotton on the market for six or eight days yet.

Staggers Skeptics.

That a clean, nice, fragrant compound like Bucklen's Arnica Salve will instantly relieve a bad burn, cut, scald, wound or piles, staggers skeptics. But great cures prove it's a wonderful healer of the worst sores, ulcers, boils, felons, eczema, skin eruptions, as also chapped hands, sprains, and corns. Try it. 25c at Robt. R. Bellamy.

NOV. SALE SURVIVOR.

Mrs. Catharine Belknap Last of Watts Wagon Train Party.

Spokane, Wash., August 27.—Mrs. Catharine Belknap, sole survivor of the Watts wago ntrain party, which crossed the plains from Iowa to Oregon in 1848 and oldest pioneer woman in the Northwest, celebrated the 90th anniversary o fher birthday at the home of her grandson, Walter Belknap, 2323 East Providence avenue, Spokane, a fe wdays ago. She is in good health and expects to reach the century mark. She has not experienced a day's sickness in 83 years.

Mrs. Belknap is a native of Ohio, born on August 15th, 1820, When 19 years of age, she married George Belknap and moved to Van Bure ncounty, Iowa, then a territory, where she and her husband joined the Watts party. The train, which was composed of 40 wagons, started for Oregon, in which territory the government then offered a naif section of land to every settler. The Belknaps settled 100 miles south of Oregon City, living there 30 years.

The trip across the plains was fraught with danger and troops of soldiers were assigned to guard the emigrants from attack by hostile Indians. Mrs. Belknap says the scores of shots were exchanged daily, but few were injured. When the party reached the Oregon borde rthe party divided, 20 of the wagons crossing the Cascade mountains, and there again divided, 10 wagons going through to a point 100 miles south of Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Belknap moved to Washington territory in 1879, and settled in the Palouse country, 40 miles south of Spokane, which then had a population of 250 and one general store and a cross-roads postoffice, the mail being brought in by pony express.

"In those days none of us believed that Spokane would ever have more than 5,000 population," said Mrs. Belknap, "and not eve nthe most enthusiastic 'booster' dreamed there would one day be a city of 123,000. But it has all come about .n 31 years."

AFTER SUFFERING ONE YEAR

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Milwaukee, Wis. — "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman, and I would like to tell the whole world of it. I suffered from female trouble and fearful pains in my back. I had the best doctors and they all decided that I had a tumor in addition to my female trouble, and advised an operation. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman and I have no more backache. I hope I can help others by telling them what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me." — MRS. EMMA IMSE, 833 First St., Milwaukee, Wis.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

S. S. S. A REAL TONIC & BLOOD PURIFIER

Any system that needs a tonic needs also a blood purifier, for it is the weakened and impure condition of the circulation that is responsible for the run-down state of health. We have only to recognize the importance of pure, rich blood in preserving health, to realize the danger of a weakened or impure circulation. Deficient blood nutriment weakens the system, and it can not resist disease like a strong robust constitution. First the body has a worn-out feeling, the appetite is fickle, energy begins to flag, the digestion is bad, etc. If the condition is not corrected at this stage more serious results are sure to follow, and sometimes a long debilitating spell of sickness is the result. S. S. S. is Nature's tonic, made of roots, herbs and barks. It is not a nerve stimulant, but a medicine that steadily builds up every portion of the system by cleansing and enriching the blood, and in this way supplying an increased amount of nourishment and resistive powers to every portion of the body. S. S. S. quiets the overstrained nerves, improves the appetite, tones up the stomach and digestion, and thoroughly enriches and purifies the blood. S. S. S. is a real tonic because it is a real blood purifier. S. S. S. contains no harmful mineral and persons of all ages can use it with the same beneficial results. Be sure to get S. S. S. for your tonic this year do not accept anything in place of it; there is nothing else "just as good" as S. S. S. You will find it all that is claimed for it.

LINCOLN LITHIA WATER

"BOTTLED AT THE SPRING"

Lincoln Lithia Inn Open to Guests May 15th to October 1st. Literature Upon Request

Do you ever think about the ANALYSIS of the water you are drinking? Do you know that one's life is only so long as the life of the arteries? Arterial Degeneration is due mainly to the absorption of poisons from the intestinal channel and the inability of the system to eliminate these poisons. The skin, the bowels, and the kidneys are the only avenues through which these poisons can be eliminated. A good water is one which gently stimulates the kidneys, liver and bowels. LINCOLN LITHIA does this because it is a diffusible water and contains the alkaline bicarbonates of Lithia, Soda and Magnesia, the best known drugs for the stimulation of these organs and in quantities sufficient to be active and not too active. A good water should not be loaded with undesirable mineral salts; solids harmful to the system and easily deposited in the tissues.

The most recent investigations in Kidney Diseases show common salt (Chloride of Soda) is the worst thing to take into the system; when one has this disease. Lincoln Lithia contains less than the human fluids.

When you buy a Lithia Water, think about what you are getting. Buy LINCOLN LITHIA, it is a delicious table water and contains only desirable mineral solids, the reason it is so universally endorsed by the Best Physicians of the State.

In cases of 12 half gallon bottles, $4.00 and 5 gallon demijohns, $3.00. For sale by druggists and grocers or
